Use Tax On Electricity Buried

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

A bill proposing a $12 million use tax on electricity was killed on a 4-1 vote of the Legislature's Revenue Committee Thursday.

The measure, LB391, introduced by Sen. Clifton Foster of Bradshaw, originally proposed a constitutional amendment which would authorize taxation of public power and irrigation districts.

Foster presented to the committee as a substitute proposal legislation which would levy a tax of two mills per kilowatt hour on electricity generated.

The revenue would be distributed to local school districts on a basis of average daily membership, according to provisions of the substitute plan.

The tax, Foster told the committee, meets all the recommended criteria for a fair method of taxation, including ability to pay.

Consumer-Paid

The power district would collect the tax, and the electric consumer would pay it.

By reallocating revenue to local school districts, the tax would relieve 12% to 15% in local property taxes, Foster said, thus broadening the tax base.

Other advantages, he said, would be the use of a tax base (electric generation) which doubles every 7 years, and the fact that such a tax "would act as a brake on electric rates" and as "an incentive to efficiency."

The tax, Foster noted, would cost average residential electric users 50 cents a month.

Joe Vosoba of Wilber, representing Norris Public Power District, said Norris would oppose the original bill, but not the substitute since it involves "a matter of public policy to be determined by the Legislature."

'Discriminatory'

However, Vosoba pointed out, the substitute would "discriminate" against electric utilities to the advantage of competitors, like natural gas suppliers.

Flat opposition was voiced by Consumers Public Power District, Omaha Public Power District, the Nebraska Rural Electric Association, Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District and the League of Nebraska Municipalities.

Consumers attorney Richard Wilson of Lincoln noted that power districts already pay a 5% levy on revenue in addition to fixed in-lieu-of-tax payments. Both totaled $924,379 for Consumers, in 1962.

$2.3 Million Cost

The original bill would have cost CPPD an additional $1,264,000, he said, and the substitute would cost Consumers customers an estimated $2.3 million.

The tax would be "harmful to Nebraska," Wilson said, increasing its electrical costs and impairing industrial growth.

For instance, the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., in Lincoln would pay an additional $28,700 annually for electricity, he said.

'Power Destroyer'

OPPD spokesman Frank Wolf of Omaha said the tax "destroys the concept of public power."

Further, he said, it would decrease the use of electricity and thereby affect interest costs on borrowed money.

Allied Chemical Co., in Omaha would pay $208,000 a year in electric taxes, Wolf said. The original bill would have cost OPPD $4 million.

Survey Indication

Ralph Foreman of Columbus, speaking for the NREA legislative committee, told the lawmakers that a survey indicated that the tax cost to average rural customers would total $13.47 a year.

Stanley Matzke of Hastings, speaking for Central, summed up: Public power, he said, has helped develop and enrich the Nebraska economy — "Don't kill the goose that lays the golden egg."

In other action, the committee amended and advanced on a 5-0 vote LB645, changing registration fees for farm trucks.

PRAISE DEFENSE BOSS

Odd, Sweet Music Greets McNamara

. . . CHANGE OF PACE ON CAPITOL HILL

Washington (AP)—Strange but sweet music fell Thursday upon the ears of Robert S. McNamara, the buffeted secretary of defense.

He was hailed on Capitol Hill as a grand economizer, a man with a heart that feels for the taxpayer, a fellow determined to break the gold-plated buying habits of the Pentagon.

This was a switch because McNamara has been variously pictured lately as (1) a computer-type who relies on civilian "whiz kids" to overrule the wisdom of military experts (2) a man whose choice of a contractor for the wonder warplane, the TFX, is open to grave question.

Hearty Pat

The most hearty pat on the back came Thursday from white-thatched Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., an economist in private life. He is chairman of the Joint Senate-House Economic Committee. McNamara appeared before a subcommittee of this group to tell how he is trying to save billions.

This is a different committee from the McClellan Investigations Subcommittee, which is putting McNamara through the hoops in the $6.5-billion TFX row.

"I personally," Douglas said, "consider you to be a great secretary of defense, a man who understands the intricate problems and has the courage to act on them."

McNamara read a 30-page statement reciting how, in the past, billions have gone more or less down the drain. The statement, though couched in big words not too easy to understand, was enough to leave a taxpayer mournful and, in the case of one comparatively minor item, could give a thoughtful layman the goose pimples.

It seems the Air Force spent $80 million on a decoy missile known as the Goose. The idea was that it would deceive hostile radar by making like a B52 bomber.

McNamara said the Goose project was killed off because once launched the bird could not be recalled to its home base as can a bomber. Thus, he said, it was "incompatible with the new concept of positive control."

It takes no imagination to figure out what might happen if this wild Goose winged its way toward the Russians and blithely ignored frantic cries from the Strategic Air Command:

"Come back! Come back! The war scare was all a false alarm."

Among many other abortive projects, McNamara mentioned the attempt to develop an atomic-powered aircraft. He said this lasted 15 years and cost more than $1 billion before a halt was called in 1961.

"It is highly unlikely that we would ever have obtained anything useful from the military point of view," McNamara said.

Painful

It is always painful for anyone, in uniform or civvies, to change his habits, McNamara said. But he is in there trying. One thing he is attempting to alter is "gold plating" or the buying of "excess quality."

Translated into homey terms, this is like a housewife buying a gold-plated can opener when a stainless steel one would do.

SMALL CAR CATCHES ON DAM

A fireman attaches tow ropes to a small car which caught on a 30-foot-high dam on the Napanee River, 25 miles west of Kingston, Ont., Thursday. The car plunged off a highway into the swollen river and floated about 250 feet before stopping on the dam. Mrs. Clarence Taylor, 39, of Napanee, climbed to the roof of the car and was rescued by firemen. The vehicle was only slightly damaged.

Jury Finds Estes Guilty

El Paso, Tex (AP) — The government convicted promoter Billie Sol Estes of 4 counts of mail fraud and one of conspiracy Thursday exactly one year after the collapse of his flimsy financial empire.

Federal Judge R. E. Thomason deferred sentencing until after a report by a probation officer. This was expected to take about two weeks.

Estes maintained a faint, almost ironic smile, throughout the return of the jury's verdict.

Acquitted Of 9

The jury of 10 men and 2 women acquitted Estes of 8 other counts of mail fraud and one of transporting a fraudulent document in the mails.

Each of the 5 counts of conviction carries a maximum sentence of 5 years in a federal penitentiary. Judge Thomason could, if he wished, sentence Estes to 25 years in prison, or he could reduce these by ordering two or more of the sentences on each count to run concurrently.

Mrs. Estes, wearing a blue dress and a double white carnation on her shoulder, appeared near collapse when the court clerk read the verdict.

The jury deliberated 48 hours and 35 minutes.

Quiet, Firm

All 12 jurors answered in quiet, firm voices when defense attorney John D. Cofer asked that they be polled.

Asked by a reporter what he thought of the verdict, Estes replied: "No comment."

Cofer requested that the $100,000 bond under which the black-haired, stocky promoter has been free be continued while an appeal is prepared.

Estes, 38, also is under state sentence for a term of eight years in prison.

Basic Charge

The basic charge in both cases was that Estes induced farmers and others to sign mortgages listing mythical fertilizer tanks as collateral.

Witnesses told how Estes sold these mortgages to major finance companies across the nation.

He peddled $24 million in this worthless paper before federal agents jailed him one year ago Friday.

Shortly thereafter, his paper empire crashed amid mounting debts and a series of indictments.

When the end came, he owed $19 million on the mortgages.

$4,000 Governor Salary Increase Recommended

The Legislature's Salaries and Claims Committee, believing that the governor should be the highest paid elective officer in the state, Thursday recommended increasing the chief executive's salary from $14,000 to $18,000.

The committee's recommended figure is included in LB516 which was advanced to the legislative floor by a vote of 7-0, as were a series of other salary measures.

If the committee's recommendations are implemented by the Unicameral, the state engineer's pay will be upped from $13,500 to $17,000; Supreme Court justices will be raised from $13,000 to $17,000; and district judges from $11,000 to $15,000.

The committee said municipal judges should be raised from $10,000 to $12,000; the attorney general from $11,500 to $15,000; the state tax commissioner from $10,000 to $12,500; the director of banking from $9,000 to $10,500; and the secretary of state, state treasurer and state auditor from $9,000 to $10,500.

Under an amendment to the gubernatorial measure, LB516, the lieutenant governor would be raised from $3,000 to $5,000.

The committee arrived at the following recommendations for county judges' salaries:

In counties with up to 2,750 population, raised from $2,160 to $3,240; in counties with 2,750 to 6,500 population, raised from $3,240 to $4,800; in counties of 6,500 to 13,000, raised from $4,000 to $5,500; in counties of 13,000 to 16,000, raised from $4,320 to $6,500.

In counties of 16,000 to 25,000, raised from $6,000 to $9,000; in counties of 25,000 to 60,000, raised from $6,600 to $10,000; in counties of 60,000 to 200,000, raised from $11,500 to $15,500; and in counties of more than 200,000, raised from $12,500 to $16,500.

More Recommended

In other bills, the committee recommended raising the Nebraska liquor commissioners and the commission secretary from $7,000 to $7,500; the secretary of the State Board of Educational Lands and Funds from $7,500 to $8,000.

Court reporters from $7,000 to $8,000; the clerk of municipal court from $6,000 to 7,600; and the junior examiners in the Insurance Department from $4,200 to a maximum of $5,040.

Sen. William B. Brandt, chairman of the committee, said he believes the Legislature will generally go along with the proposed increases.

NAVY SPLIT ON TFX

Washington (AP) — An apparent disagreement within the Navy over who could build the best TFX warplane came to light Thursday as inquiries broadened into the $6.5-billion controversy.

There were these developments:

1. The Senate Investigations Subcommittee released testimony by Rear Adm. Frederick L. Ashworth saying award of the initial $28-million development contract to General Dynamics Corp. of Fort Worth, Tex., would not produce the best plane.

Secret Memo

2. The Pentagon made public a hitherto secret memo by Navy Capt. John T. Sheppard giving a slight edge to General Dynamics over the Boeing Co. of Seattle, Wash., but saying there was no clear-cut Navy choice between the competing designs.

3. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who overruled a final military recommendation favoring the Boeing design and awarded the development contract to General Dynamics, went before another congressional group to defend his action at a public hearing. He appeared before a defense procurement subcommittee of the Senate-House Economic Committee.

4. The Senate Investigations Subcommittee, which heard McNamara last week, pressed ahead with its closed inquiry. Members said the Pentagon will be asked to explain a document saying "there are political dangers" involved in the TFX contract award "but they should be accepted."

The subcommittee says it is seeking to determine whether any favoritism was shown in awarding the contract. The project calls for the eventual purchase of about 1,700 of the new all-purpose TFX — tactical fighter, experimental — planes for use by both the Air Force and the Navy.

McNamara repeated before the Senate-House economic group his contention that the General Dynamics design will save the taxpayers "at least a billion dollars in development, production and operating costs over the life cycle of the aircraft."

He contends the Texas firm offered to produce a better airplane at a lower eventual cost, and he says he awarded them the contract on the basis of merit alone.

Ashworth, who testified before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee Wednesday, was a member of the military source selection board whose recommendation in favor of Boeing was overruled by higher civilian authority.

Ashworth's testimony, as made public Thursday, was that "my personal opinion is that the Boeing airplane is a superior airplane to meet, or has the potential of meeting, the Navy requirements in a superior fashion."

"And if you take the General Dynamics plane, you are not getting the best plane, isn't that true?" asked Jerome Adlerman, subcommittee counsel.

"That is my personal opinion, sir," the admiral answered.

Under questioning by Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., Ashworth said that while the Navy "signified a preference for Boeing as the contractor for this program, we are confident that our efforts . . . will make it possible for us to get a good Navy fighter whichever contractor builds it."

A somewhat different view was presented by Sheppard in a Nov. 2, 1962 memo released by the Pentagon. Sheppard was Navy co-chairman of a preliminary evaluation group which narrowed the field of contract bidders down from 6 to two.

Sheppard's memo gave a point by point appraisal of the Boeing and General Dynamics designs. In 14 points of comparison he gave General Dynamics a qualified edge of 6 to 5, with 3 points about even.

Grass And Prairie Fires Plague State

A large grass fire that spread from West J nearly to West O Thursday afternoon was one of 5 large grass fires in the state Thursday and the largest of 5 in Lincoln.

Asst. Fire Chief Curtis Kadlick said the big grass fire covered between 400 and 640 acres. (One square mile is 640 acres.) It did no damage, but threatened West O trailer courts and a Burlington Railroad tank car containing a million gallons of diesel fuel.

The first alarm was turned in at 4:59 p.m. by Mrs. Marie Gonzalez of 244 West J. Another alarm was called in by the Burlington tower as the fire approached West O along Salt Creek.

3-Way Battle

Three Lincoln Fire Department rigs fought the blaze from West J and West O. The railroad fire department rigs fought the blaze from West J and West O. The railroad fire department doused flames on Burlington land, and Chief Sterling F. Mutz Jr. of the Southwest Rural Fire Protection District put out flames with a fire extinguisher.

A Burlington official said no railroad equipment was damaged. "It just burned away the weeds," he said. However, two diesel fuel tenders were derailed momentarily in an effort to move them out of the path of the fire.

The last fire unit left the scene at 6:42 p.m., and the fire was officially out. Kadlick said he did not know how the fire started, but he thought there was originally two fires on both sides of Salt Creek in the vicinity of West J.

Lincoln Fire Capt. Floyd Parks, of 2674 So. 10th, suffered blisters on his feet walking in the fire area. He was treated at the fire station.

Elsewhere in Nebraska, 4 prairie fires were reported near Greeley, Spalding and Clearwater by the Associated Press.

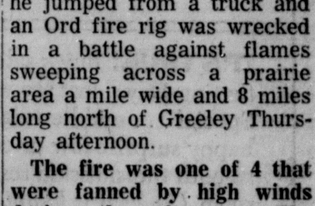

Mickey Harris of Greeley suffered a broken leg when he jumped from a truck and an Ord fire rig was wrecked in a battle against flames sweeping across a prairie area a mile wide and 8 miles long north of Greeley Thursday afternoon.

The fire was one of 4 that were fanned by high winds during the afternoon. The others were in the Spalding area and in the Clearwater vicinity.

The Greeley fire started in the city dump and fire departments from Greeley, Ord, St. Paul, North Loup, Scotia, Spalding and Wolbach fought the blaze for several hours.

The Spalding fire department fought the two blazes near that town, one on the John Koenig farm where a hay shed, barn and hog shed were destroyed. The fire started in the hay shed. The other blaze was a grass fire on the Fred Glaser farm.

Two hundred acres of hay and corn land were burned over in the Clearwater fire southeast of town. The fire started from an exhaust spark from a tractor pulling a load of hay. Fire departments from Clearwater, Ewing, Elgin and Neligh controlled the blaze.

Jets Fire At U.S. Ship

. . . IN INTERNATIONAL WATERS OFF CUBA

Washington, (AP) — Two unidentified jet planes fired on a U.S. cargo ship Thursday night in international waters off the coast of Cuba the State Department said.

Washington sources said the planes appeared to be Russian-built MIG jets.

Navy fighters raced to the scene but the unidentified attackers were gone. The State Department said bursts were fired across the bow and stern of the motor ship Floridian, owned by the South Atlantic and Caribbean Lines, Inc., New York.

No Hits

No hits were scored, the department said.

Reports varied on the size of the ship, which is expected to dock in Miami early Friday. But in Miami, an official of Eagle stevedores, Inc., agent for the craft, said it carried a crew of 24, including Capt. Charles Olsen, on a voyage bringing 35 refrigerated trailers full of food from San Juan, Puerto Rico, to Miami.

In New York, Henry Engelbrecht, vice president of the line, termed the incident the first "in which a ship has been attacked, although the New Yorker on two occasions has picked up refugees who were in small boats — people who had escaped from Cuba. They were picked up in international waters."

Jets Scrambled

At first report of the incident from the U.S. Coast Guard, two Navy Corsair jet fighters scrambled to the scene from Key West, Fla. But when they got there "there was nothing going on," one Washington source said.

The Corsairs then were relieved by Marine Phantom jets, also out of Key West, the source said.

MIGs Fired

Last Feb. 20 a pair of MIG fighters fired near a U.S. shrimp boat, the Ala, while it was in international waters off the Cuban coast.

The United States vigorously protested the attack and said whatever measures necessary would be used to prevent such assaults in the future.

Government officials here said the crew will be questioned upon arrival in Miami to get a full account of what happened.

SERGEI S. BIRYUZOV

ROCKET BOSS HIKED

. . . Russia Emphasizes Military Missiles

Moscow (AP) — Marshall Sergei S. Biryuzov, commander of Soviet rocket forces, has been raised to chief of the general staff, underlining the growing emphasis the Russians place on military rocketry.

It was the marshal who declared last month that the Soviet Union had solved the problem of destroying enemy rockets in flight and had mastered the technique of launching offensive missiles from sputniks in orbit.

His promotion was announced Thursday in an offhand manner by the military newspaper Krasnaya Zvezda (Red Star). It identified him as chief of staff in reporting he had met with the world champion Soviet hockey team.

No Indication

Marshal Matvey Zakharov had been chief of the general staff since 1960. There was no indication of his next assignment, if any.

Biryuzov, 59, is a veteran of the battle of Stalingrad in World War II. He commanded Soviet occupation troops in Austria for a time in 1954.

Returning from Austria, Biryuzov was appointed commander in chief of the Soviet Union's antiaircraft defenses. He was named commander of Soviet rocket forces last year.

Bold Claim

In an interview with Moscow radio Feb. 21, he declared Soviet rocket power could wipe any aggressor from the face of the earth.

After Biryuzov was made head of Soviet rocket forces, Russian military journals began indicating a shift in strategy, making rocket troops the basic offensive and defensive military arm.

Biryuzov, in statements this year on the anniversary of the Battle of Stalingrad, gave Khrushchev much credit for the victory. Zakharov tended to give credit for the victory to the general staff under Stalin. Zakharov also has been listed by some as among Soviet generals and politicians who disagree with Khrushchev's foreign policy and tend toward a tougher stand against the West.

Raids Draw Bomber Threat From Castro

Havana (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro threatened Thursday to arm Cuba with long-range bombers to counteract daredevil raids by Cuban exiles. He blamed the United States for an exile attack which crippled a Russian freighter Tuesday night.

"If these attacks continue, Cuba will see herself in a situation of considering acquisition of long-range bombers as well as naval equipment necessary to escort our merchant ships, protect our supply lines and repel aggressors," Castro said in a communique.

Castro repeated his charges that counterrevolutionaries are using bases on American soil from which to launch their raids. He called a State Department statement disapproving such raids nothing but a smokescreen.

The threat of acquiring long-range bombers obviously harked back to the 750-mile-range jet bombers which Premier Khrushchev agreed to remove from Cuba together with medium-range missiles in the crisis last fall. The U.S. government said it counted 42 of the bombers and 42 of the missiles on ships leaving Cuba.

Castro said the Tuesday attack on the Soviet freighter Baku near the port of Caibarien on Cuba's north coast, 220 miles east of Havana, left the vessel "seriously damaged" and put the lives of Soviet crewmen in "grave danger."

The Soviet news agency Tass said that the ship was on the way to Russia with a cargo of sugar when it was attacked by a "piratic warship." The Russian agency said the raiders fired a torpedo which blew a hole 13 feet by 1½ feet in the hold. It said the raiders also fired several shots from 20 MM. guns and sprayed the ship with machine gun fire.

There was no mention of Soviet casualties.

PRESIDENT'S CLASSMATE

President Kennedy wrestles with international problems but Robert Freeman a Harvard College classmate is quite content to wrestle with the problems of a plumber in the tiny White Mountain village of Jackson, N.H., population 315. Freman, who received an A.B. degree in English literature in President Kennedy's class of 1940 first taught history, English and Latin in a prep school. After the war he came to the mountains as an innkeeper. Forced to learn plumbing, he decided it was more profitable to be a plumber.

Propaganda Blemishes Education In America

Washington (AP) — Justice William O. Douglas described American education Thursday night as blemished by "more propaganda . . . than we appreciate" — some of it racial, some religious, some ideological.

"Americanism is often taught as a brief for whatever American foreign policy may be in effect, no matter how defeating it may be," the U.S. Supreme Court Justice said in a speech for the National Civil Liberties Clearing House.

"Many texts subtly downgrade the Negroes in favor of the whites," he said. "Some . . . proclaim Protestantism over Catholicism and Christianity over Judaism by failing to describe the history of religious liberty in a fair way."

Becoming Fad

"Teaching communism is becoming a fad," Douglas continued. ". . . moreover, the tendency has been to serve a political rather than an educational need. Those who travel in Communist lands . . . know that a Communist regime is not all black, while we are all white . . . is there enough courage and independence left to disclose what features of the Soviet system are not evil?"

Douglas, in his sharp criticism of American education, enumerated several cases of censorship by school boards of school libraries. He included the case of a California school board he said banned "a brochure 'The Rule of Law in World Affairs,' by a Justice Douglas."

Douglas went on to describe what he called the "passion for sifting books in school libraries" by puritans, religious groups, isolationists, segregationists, and laissez faire (do nothing) advocates, all intent on ferreting out "Ideological strays."

Propaganda

"Education by those standards is largely propaganda for one point of view or one school of thought," Douglas said.

"That is indeed precisely the Communist approach to sociology, political science, history and art."

The solution? Douglas said "we need task forces which make as sure as possible that the literature in our schools is adequate for the multi-racial, multi-religious, and multi-ideological groups that make up our nation."

Other Areas

While Douglas — long known for his zealous defense of civil liberties — focused on the problem of education, he did not ignore other areas of American life where he feels civil liberties need guarding:

1. "The power of the bureaucracy is crushing. Only the expert can find his way. One not flanked by lawyers has little chance to enjoy his rights. The lone individual without a spokesman loses his rights by default. That problem promises to get more serious. . ."

2. ". . . arrests for investigation are still common in some areas of the country. The persons arrested are not sons and daughters of the upper or middle classes. They come from the lower strata or from minority groups who do not know how to protect themselves and who do not have the prestige, courage or resources to vindicate their rights through suits for false arrest."

Pob Seeking

3. "Being poor and looking for a job is a crime in many of our localities . . . vagrants, whose only crime is poverty, are convicted by the thousands and no bar association committee concerns itself with the matter."

4. "Some cities — and I speak principally of northern ones — have a widening river of hate . . . we know that when racial bias is indoctrinated into the police or when the police are allowed to treat a Negro or a member of another minority as a second-class citizen, the river of hate widens."

Douglas concluded with an appeal for task forces "to concern themselves with the problems of the bill of rights in the modern setting."

"Churches, unions, business groups, professional societies, school boards, parent-teacher associations, the pulpit and the press all have important stakes in the enterprise," he said.

Alec Templeton, Blind Pianist, Dies At 52

Greenwich, Conn. (AP)—Alec Templeton, 52, blind pianist and satirist who appeared on many radio shows, died in his home here Thursday. He had been ill several months.

Templeton, born in Cardiff, Wales, came to the United States in 1935. He appeared as a guest on a number of radio programs and later starred in a show of his own. He became a United States citizen in 1941.

Templeton, blind from birth, could pick out tunes on a piano at the age of 4.

He was skilled in improvising. He would ask for 5 musical notes from an audience and weave the notes into a melody. Or, he would ask for the names of several songs and work them into one composition.

Jail Negroes For Sit-Ins At Drug Stores

Rome, Ga. (UPI) — Scores of Negro teenagers staged soda fountain counter sit-in demonstrations at downtown drug stores here Thursday. Police arrested them for loitering and hauled them to jail in paddy wagons.

The Negroes showed up at the drug stores in this northwest Georgia city shortly after schools closed for the day.

Store managers said they asked the Negro teenagers to leave and when they wouldn't do so, called police. Authorities estimated that about 100 Negroes were involved.

The teenagers were put in cells after being booked on a variety of charges that included, besides loitering, blocking streets and passageways, disorderly conduct and failing to leave a place of business when requested.

Beatrice Offer Stirs Frontier

Washington (AP)—Frontier Airlines, taking note of an offer by Beatrice, Neb., to underwrite a subsidy cost, plans to tell the Civil Aeronautics Board it is willing to continue serving the town temporarily.

Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., said Thursday he was notified of this proposal by Lewis Dymond, Frontier president.

The board last month authorized Frontier to drop its service to Beatrice but deferred a final decision on the flights to Alliance, Chadron, Hastings, Kearney, McCook and Sidney, Neb., until July 1.

Beatrice, in a petition for reconsideration to the board, offered to underwrite the subsidy cost involved for continuing Frontier's operations there. The board has not acted upon this request.

A group of Beatrice businessmen offered last week to pay up to $1,250 a month, for up to 12 months, as a substitute for the $15,000 subsidy they were told Frontier got last year for serving the town.

MOOT COURT WINNERS

Bill Hemmer (left) and Dean Dalke, both of Lincoln, Thursday night won the 1963 Allen Moot court competition of the University of Nebraska's College of Law. Dalke and Hemmer won the championship arguments over Fred Kaufmann of Omaha and Guy Bush of Sidney. Judges Harry Spencer, Robert Brower and Leslie Boslaugh of the Nebraska Supreme Court ruled on the final arguments, held in the Supreme Court chambers. Kaufmann and Hemmer received awards for best individual arguments. (Star Photo)

Garment Not Property Of Missing Girl

Napa, Calif. (AP)—A pair of girl's underpants found in a back yard 10 blocks from where 5-year-old Doreen Heskett disappeared Monday night do not belong to the missing girl, authorities said Thursday.

When the panties were first found earlier, the missing girl's distraught mother Dorothy, told police she thought they belonged to her daughter. They were stained with what looked like dried blood, police said.

Fears of a sex crime were somewhat allayed when the Sacramento crime lab said the stains were not blood.

Doreen disappeared Monday evening around 5 p.m. She was last seen by a girl friend in whose house she had been visiting.

Linda Ford, 5, said she left Doreen about 3 blocks from her home. Nobody has seen her since.

A large contingent of Air Police from nearby Hamilton Air Force Base and 85 soldiers from San Francisco's Presidio have joined Napa police and Sonoma County Sheriff's deputies in a house-by-house, lot-by-lot search.

Marvin Heskett, the girl's father, returned Thursday from McCook, Neb., where he had gone to see his ill mother, Mrs. R. D. Heskett.

The Hesketts have 9 children, including Doreen.

Marvin Heskett arrived in McCook Tuesday morning by bus and returned immediately to Napa after receiving news that his daughter was missing.

Southeast Shriners Pay High Honor To Judge Virgil Falloon

Falls City — Judge Virgil Falloon, retired district court judge here, Thursday was honored at the Southeast Shrine Club Honors Dinner for his years of service to the organization which he helped form.

Falloon

Judge Falloon as organizer and first president of the Sesostris Shrine Club in 1950, has remained an active member of this and other fraternal organizations.

He was made a Master Mason in 1917, advancing through the upper bodies to the degree of Knights Templar, Scottish Rite and 32nd-degree Knight Commander of the Court of Honor.

He spent 45 years as county and district judge, retiring from the district court bench in 1962.

One of his accomplishments during his service on the bench is the compilation of the history of the district bench, beginning with the first judicial district, and including a biography of each judge.

He is a past president of both the Nebraska Bar and the Nebraska District Judges associations.

He was editor and publisher of the Falls City Journal; president of the school board; charter member, early president and founder of the Falls City Rotary Club, and delegate 4 times to the Rotary International.

He received a Rotary Service Award in 1959 for outstanding community service.

Slide Show Set By Senators

. . . MRS. ORME CONDEMNS BUDGET FILM

The Legislature Thursday decided to take a look at the controversial slide film presentation of Budget Committee activities produced by the State Chamber of Commerce.

The presentation will be shown to the lawmakers at 11:45 a.m. Friday.

Meanwhile, Sen. Fern Hubbard Orme of Lincoln — a member of the budget unit—informed the Legislature that she "do(es) not approve of the film in any way."

Mrs. Orme said the film contains "misinformation, and it is inaccurate." Further, she noted, she does not approve of the "attitudes" expressed in the film.

Not Consulted

Mrs. Orme said she was not consulted about the film, and she has directed that her picture be removed from its presentation.

The issue, which has kicked off a dispute between the Lincoln Chamber and the state organization, was raised on the floor by Sen. Marvin E. Stromer of Lincoln.

Stromer said certain publicized comments about the film made by Lincoln Chamber members are "unfortunate," although he noted that his position would "not be a popular stand."

The Legislature, Stromer said, is involved "by inference . . . and has a right to see what this is all about so its members can pass judgment."

Sen. Hal Bridenbaugh of Dakota City, a member of the Budget Committee, scolded Lincoln critics and said he was "surprised" at the Lincoln Chamber's action.

"From the standpoint of taxes, they seem to think this is Lincoln's Capitol, not the state's Capitol," Bridenbaugh declared. "We can't go along with everything they want."

Sen. William Skarda of Omaha said "it is high time that the people of Nebraska know what (Budget Chairman Sen. Richard) Marvel and his committee are trying to do."

The motion to view the film was offered by Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff.

Asked how he reacted to the film, Sen. Harold Stryker of Rising City—another budget member—said it places "too much emphasis on the Budget Committee when every committee of the Legislature has equal responsibility."

Mayor To See About Mosquito Plan 'Soon'

Mayor D. L. Tyrrell said Thursday he would confer soon with County Board Chairman Ralph Harlan on a recommended "interim mosquito control program" to be jointly implemented by the city and county.

Prediction of the probability of a "heavy mosquito season" this summer has come from City-County Health Director George R. Underwood.

He outlined the need for 3- or 4-member spraying crew with truck and power sprayer for an "interim control" program during the April 1-Oct. 1 mosquito season.

Review Suggested

Dr. Underwood has suggested the proposed program be reviewed with his department by members of the city and county legal and engineering staffs before implementing action by the two governing bodies.

Tyrrell said Cty Atty. Ralph Nelson and Public Works Director D. L. Erickson would be designated the city's representatives to review the recommended program.

He anticipated the two governing bodies would meet jointly to determine a course of action on the program after the preliminary work is completed.

However, the mayor did not indicate how soon such a meeting could be arranged.

Dr. Underwood's report suggests Monday starts the mosquito season.

Over 40 Leaders Attending Nysted Recreation Lab

Nysted — More than 40 leaders representing home extension clubs, Boy and Girl Scouts, and church groups in Nebraska are taking part in the annual Great Plains Recreation Laboratory here this week.

Kenneth Schmidt, associate state 4-H club leader at the University of Nebraska, says the enrollment is up somewhat from previous years. Those attending came from Grand Island, Beatrice, Scottsbluff, Ogallala, O'Neill, Thedford, Amelia, and Central City.

Highlight of the affair is the annual community party conducted by participants for residents of Nysted, site of the old Danish Folk School where the laboratory is held each year.

Those attending are practicing what they are learning by planning recreation programs, folk dancing, group singing and other activities during the week.

Dworak Vetoes Omaha's Urban Renewal Plan

Omaha (AP)—Mayor James Dworak vetoed the urban renewal authority ordinance passed early Wednesday on a vote of 4 to 3 by the City Council.

Mayor Dworak said Thursday he was vetoing it because he felt it should go to a vote of the people. The council, on a 4 to 3 vote, had rejected an amendment the ordinance go to the electorate.

Opponents of urban renewal indicated during a 4-hour hearing Tuesday night that they would undertake a petition drive to put the ordinance to a vote of the people.

Five City Council votes would be necessary to override the mayor's veto.

Writer-Painter John Faulkner Dies In Hospital

Memphis, Tenn. (AP)— Writer-painter John W. T. Faulkner III died Thursday at a hospital where he underwent surgery for a ruptured blood vessel of the stomach.

Faulkner, brother of the late Nobel Prize winning novelist William Faulkner, had been in critical condition since Tuesday night.

The 61-year old Oxford, Miss., novelist entered the hospital 12 days ago. He had shown improvement after the operation but his condiiton worsened Tuesday.

Student Teaching Group Will Meet

Seward — The spring meeting of the Nebraska Association for Student Teaching will meet on the Concordia campus Saturday, according to A. C. Erxleben, coordinator of student teaching at Concordia.

Membership is comprised of those educators from Nebraska colleges, high and elementary schools who are concerned with the supervision of student teaching. About 70 persons are anticipated at the Seward meeting.

The Nebraska section of the Association for Student Teaching was organized about a year ago. Mrs. Lillian Pease of the Meadow Lane School, Lincoln, is chairman.

The keynote of the Saturday meeting will be the address by Dr. B. E. Ross, Wayne State Teachers College, on the topic "Standards in Teacher Education and/or What Should be Expected of the Student Teacher during the Laboratory Experience." Mrs. Doris Tabor of the Omaha University will speak at the afternoon session.

Little Allen Shockey Requires 13 Stitches

Four-year-old Allen David Shockey of 512 No. 26th had 13 stitches taken in his forehead late Thursday afternoon for a cut he received in a collision with an automobile at 26th and S.

Driving the car was Johnny E. Napue, 16, of 644 No. 25th. It was southbound on 26th when the accident happened.

Little Allen was held overnight in good condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital, police reported.

Reason For Princess' Cost Excesses Sought

London (AP) — The government will be questioned in Parliament next month about the cost of renovating Princess Margaret's new home at Kensington Palace. Laborite legislator W. W. Hamilton said Thursday he will ask why the original estimate of 50,000 pounds ($140,000) for the work has been exceeded by 17,000 pounds ($47,600). This is the cost expected to be borne by the National Exchequer. Queen Elizabeth II has voted a further 20,000 pounds ($56,000) from her own funds for the work.

BOMB BLOWS OUT WINDOWS OF SYNAGOGUE

Guatemala (AP) — A bomb, which police said was placed by anti-government terrorists, blew out windows of the Maguen David Synagogue in this central American capital Wednesday night. Nobody was hurt.

Another bomb exploded outside the San Sebastian Roman Catholic Church. No damage was done.

Leonardo Castillo Flores, leftist former secretary-general of Guatemala's Peasant League, was arrested Thursday by police, members of his family said. Castillo Flores fled to Mexico in 1954 after the overthrow of pro-Communist President Jacobo Arbenz. His family would not say when he returned to Guatemala.

THE... WEATHER

Summary of Conditions

A weak high pressure area continues over the southwestern plateau with a high center over northwestern Arizona. Pressure is falling rapidly over the Pacific northwest as far south as central California.

A new storm center is moving eastwards through northern California and northwestern Nevada. The weak high pressure over the western Great Lakes area is moving rapidly east, and troughing is developing or deepening over the western high plains and the north central states. Air over the area is very dry.

Gulf moisture is being shunted eastwards or northeastwards into the central Mississippi valley. The low along the northern California coast is expected to move rapidly northeast to central Montana by noon Friday and into central North Dakota by Friday night. Meanwhile, Gulf moisture will return northwards, and winds will shift to the south and increase.

Friday will be considerably cloudy and cooler with a chance of scattered showers in western and northern Nebraska, probably spreading into western Iowa by Friday evening.

Masterful Misrepresentation

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

It has been a long time since the people have been deceived as they are in the film on state finances being distributed by the State Chamber of Commerce and Associated Industries of Nebraska. Because of its substantial disagreement with the film, the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce has threatened to withdraw from the state group unless the controversial film is taken out of circulation and changed.

As of the present time, the state group has indicated that the film will not be taken out of circulation. It has further stated and implied that the Lincoln opposition represents a pressure or special interest group, presumably one devoted to the University of Nebraska as an economic factor in the community—as a kind of industry with a fat payroll. Judging from our experience, we would say the Lincoln Chamber's action is quite a thing. It takes a lot to move this group when it comes to matters of government and politics. It would generally be found on the conservative side of things, on the Republican side and against government spending.

Conservative Group

When it denounces a film opposed to government spending, the film has to be pretty bad. And the Lincoln Chamber is as opposed to this film as we have ever seen it on anything in the many years we have been acquainted with it. This is one measure of the gross distortion and misrepresentation that are contained in the film.

Presumably, the film was supposed to advocate efficiency in state spending and a functional as opposed to a line-item approach to budgeting. With these objectives there could be no legitimate disagreement but the film is actually a far cry from this. To begin with, it portrays the administrator in state government as an evil person whose sole objective is spending as much money as he can.

The film is narrated by Legislative Budget Committee Chairman Richard Marvel of Hastings. Throughout, Senator Marvel depicts the administrator as a man who has moved in and assumed all responsibility in matters of appropriation of state funds. It further portrays him as unable even to explain his program and his budget. When the functional approach to budgeting was demanded, he said, it sent administrators scurrying for answers to questions that stumped them.

The implication is that the administrator was so wasteful that he didn't even know what it was he was requesting funds for. He was or is so inept and careless that he doesn't know what the agencies under him are doing. This, of course, is a gross error. The functional approach to budgeting involves an entirely different system of accounting. Naturally, the administrators could not provide the details on a minute's notice to functional budget questions when they had been operating for years on a line-item accounting system. But even at that, Senator Marvel has yet to produce evidence of anything by way of information that was requested of an administrator that was not given to him or the committee as a whole. We would like to know what information it is that has been denied the Budget Committee, as Senator Marvel suggests in the film.

The senator in his narration further notes that this functional approach to the employment of a budget analyst has already saved the taxpayers millions of dollars. To prove this, Senator Marvel cites cuts that the committee made in budget requests two years ago. But he neglects to say what programs this cutting has eliminated and his logic is that a cut is automatically a savings. A cut is simply a cut, not necessarily a savings.

The narration of the film refers to state administrators as "bureaucratic functionaries." By pure definition this would not be an uncomplimentary term as bureaucracy simply means the operation of government by departments and function means simply to perform. Thus, a "bureaucratic functionary" would be one who functions in the operation of a department of government. What administrator would deny this?

But what is the public conception of "bureaucratic functionary?" It is safe to say that 99 out of 100 people would think of such a person as one who has just built up an empire, has assumed all kinds of authority he was never intended to have and who is wasteful and careless with public money. In popular usage, "bureaucracy" has come to mean the wasting of public funds through red tape or worse.

Are the people of Nebraska ready to say that such men as State Engineer John Hossack, Chancellor Clifford Hardin of the University of Nebraska, Institutions Director George Morris, Department of Education Director Floyd Miller, Penitentiary Warden Maurice Sigler and a host of other dedicated and efficient public servants are wasteful bureaucrats? Are people we cannot trust, in whom we cannot believe and who have no ability the kind of people we have given positions of public trust?

There is no question that this is the implication if not the direct statement of the film. We wonder what an industrialist considering Nebraska as a new plant location would think if we told him our schools, our highways, our hospitals, our parks, our research, our tax system and all other public services were in the hands of "bureaucratic functionaries." If this is the way to build Nebraska, we need to be re-educated.

The further implication in the film is that Nebraska has pretty well wasted tax money. It is here that the greatest deceit of all is practiced. And again, what industrialist would want to come to a state that has been so wasteful of its tax funds?

The film uses a number of examples to show a 600 per cent increase in spending, examples used to convey the idea that we are wasting money and must tighten our belts. Technically, these examples may or may not be correct. It is difficult to ascertain exactly what budget items were included by the film-makers in the figures they used.

One figure used was for the University of Nebraska. It showed a 1939-41 biennial budget of $7,813,000 as compared with a 1961-63 biennial budget of $54,250,000. The figures were used as the narrator spoke of where the taxpayers' money was going. The film viewer obviously believes it is state taxes being talked about.

Yet, the 1961-63 university budget from state tax general fund sources is only $28.5 million. The $54,250,000 evidently includes all federal grants and aid, athletic department income, the self-liquidating dormitory construction program funds and a host of other things that were either not in the 1939-41 budget or there in very small amounts.

The university figures were cited with a narrative note that the increase was accomplished with "no appreciable increase" in enrollment. Yet, university enrollment in the fall of 1941 was just under 6,000 and in the fall of 1962 was 10,400. Whether this is an "appreciable" increase depends upon one's point of view but the film viewer is given no choice or chance to decide for himself; he is told what the narrator thinks or believes to be the facts.

Nor is it noted that at the present time the entire university is supported with a statewide tax levy of just slightly more than 3 mills. Yet, in Lincoln and throughout many Nebraska communities, the total tax bill is well beyond 80 mills. What must have been the university's share of the levy in 1939-41 if it is so low today and is it the university that is hurting the local taxpayer at that level of support?

Because of the location of the university in Lincoln and the great concern of Lincolnites for it, the Lincoln objection to the film has been largely presented as a prejudiced defense of the university. The fact is, however, that the film's figures are perhaps even more deceptive in other categories.

The film shows the Welfare Department with a 1939-41 budget of $17,675,000 and a 1961-63 budget of $42,500,000. But gone unnoticed in the film are such things as the 2,200 aid to disabled cases — a program that did not even exist in 1939-41—and a vast increase in other assistance. Old Age Assistance alone has gone from maximum help of $30 a month to $70, blind assistance has gone from $30 to $100 a month, aid to dependent children has gone from $18 to $100 a month for the first child plus a substantial increase for each child beyond one and OAA and aid to dependent children help now provides unlimite hospital and nursing home care where none was provided before.

The film shows the Highway Department budget going from $21,693,000 to $134,000,000 in the period in question. But it does not point out that federal aid in 1939-41 totaled $6 million but hit $75 million in 1961-63. It did not point out that a mile of hard surfacing costs $100,000 today as compared to $30,000 in 1939-41 or that men who worked a 60-hour week for $110 a month in 1939-41 now draw $270 a month for a 40-hour week.

The film shows a Department of Education budget of $1,033,000 in 1939-41 as compared to $17,675,000 for 1961-63. Not shown is the current $1,179,833 program added since 1939-41 for the handicapped, $96,841 for the trainable retarded child school at Cozad, $773,233 for the school for the deaf at Omaha, $430,000 for the school for the visually handicapped at Nebraska City, federal funds of $6,792,000 as compared to about $600,000 in 1939-41, $256,000 in a government surplus property account and a host of other things.

What do the true figures show? Do they show that the state has been victimized by hungry bureaucrats or that it has been wasting its money? These programs were approved by the Legislature so how can the Legislature now escape responsibility for them? Did it provide them at the insistence of just administrators? Is it the administrators or the people who want and have demanded better roads, care of the retarded and physical handicapped, care of the needy, agricultural research and the many other programs we have approved since 1939-41? And are the millions upon millions in federal aid that come to the state now as opposed to 20 years ago to count as state tax funds?

Seeing True Picture

And when we talk of 1939-41, are we to forget that this was a depression period for Nebraska which demanded low spending and increased future demands? And are we to forget the decline in the value of the dollar in these 20 years and the fact that just about any area of economics you can mention has increased by 600 percent or more since 1939-41? And finally, do we forget about the fact that, despite whatever we are spending today, we still rank as a state 23rd in per capita personal income as opposed to 49th in per capita state government taxes and expenditures? The film is so far off base and destructive to the state that it is fantastic.

Tougher Red Stance A Face-Saving Effort

WASHINGTON — Right now Nikita Khrushchev has to reckon with two groups—the Red army and the Chinese Reds—in selling his more moderate ideas to the communist world, and as of the moment it looks as if the Chinese were scoring more victories than he.

One of the major differences between Moscow and Peking is the inevitability of war against capitalism. And in order to appease the Chinese, it looks as if Khrushchev has stepped up the outward appearances of belligerency. At least this is the explanation given by U.S. experts for several unusual steps taken recently by the Kremlin. They are:

1.—The Soviet overflight of Alaska. This is the first time in history that Soviet planes have flown over U.S. soil. The United States has overflown Soviet-Siberian territory several times, but the Russians have been careful to stay far away from Alaskan and Aleutian territory.

Since U.S. radar posts can see these planes coming the minute they leave Siberian bases, the Russians could not have expected to get away with secret flights, therefore must have ordered them with a view to getting a little publicity.

2.—The inspection of the carrier Forrestal in mid-Atlantic — a spectacular 7,000-mile flight obviously taken with a view to demonstrating the capabilities of Soviet bombers and also get world publicity.

3.—The Soviet announcement that U.S. cruisers had fired on a Russian trawler, when actually no U.S. cruisers were anywhere within range. The announcement made it appear that Russia and the United States were getting more belligerent.

4.—When Cuban refugees announced they had shot up a Russian camp in Cuba, the Russians confirmed the story —though the United States has conclusive evidence that the raid never took place. It was a hoax. The Russians didn't bother to puncture the hoax, presumably because this gave a picture of strained relations.

While this public image of belligerency is being deliberately promoted, actually Russian and American diplomats are operating about as usual.

The Moscow line has stiffened somewhat, probably as a result of Red army influence. But no American or Russian diplomat thinks the USA or USSR are anywhere near as close to a war as the Chinese Reds would like to hope.

Congress Not Now Politically Inspired

WASHINGTON — Even President Kennedy, a face-saver by temperament, is needling his congressional leaders about their failure to put something on his desk that he can sign. In turn, they are snapping at their office help.

Maybe they will even forego their Easter recess in favor of a more serious look, but it does not appear that this will mean more than a series of adjournments.

Congress actually has nothing before it that its members really want to do because it will help them get re-elected. Its heavy work load is a chore, not a challenge. It is, furthermore, a kind of chore generally uncongenial to politicians by the nature of their trade.

They excel with people. The massive budget is mostly devoted to defense, including space and foreign aid. It takes time, technical staff and incessant toil, not to mention aptitude, to become an expert on such matters. Meanwhile, the constituents clamor for attention to their problems and the personal touch.

The stress on foreign policy which enables the President to appear strong and active in the public interest does little to help individual members of Congress. It is possible to sympathize with their problem while pointing out that they have done little as a body to solve it.

A few only join with the outsiders trying to start a great debate on what Congress should do to reassert itself as a dynamic third branch. It would mean challenges to the seniority system, a tightening of committee procedures and more joint hearings of Senate and House which would lessen personal assertion by committee members.

Leadership apathy is especially pronounced. Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield recently spent five days in Mexico pursuing his interest in foreign policy, apparently content with the present drift. Yet he has a party problem which is growing.

Increasingly, the younger and newer Democratic senators—the back-benchers—complain of lack of consideration from their dominant seniors. The complainants for the most part have a record to make, and their seats are not from one-party states. They like Mansfield well enough as a person, but they wish he would make more effort to soften the harsh contours of their political dilemmas. Many of them gave credit to Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson, when he was leader, for that kind of help, but they find Mansfield disinclined to such operations.

House Democrats wanting more action report a better relationship with Speaker John W. McCormack, though they would like a more telling symbol of the times as front man for the party. They still have to make a major project of every goal they seek and limit carefully what they try to accomplish.

Such dissatisfactions will not culminate in rebellion. They will be reflected in roll calls within committee and on the floor. They also mean that much ability and willingness to work hard for stated administration goals is being dissipated in sniping and wisecracks.

THE NEIGHBORS SAY

The Nicotine Twitch And Itch

By MONA B. PARKER

It's sulphur and molasses and sassafras tea time, Cary Reynolds reminds Curtis Enterprise readers. "And time to round up the younguns for the yearly spring tonic course."

This, she said, was regular routine 65 to 80 years ago "and heaven only knows how much further back into history."

She took her share of that and other home remedies as a child. There was lard and coal oil and turpentine as a salve for croup and lung congestion. There was tincture of iron, powdered alum and water for tonsilitis, applied with a small piece of soft white cotton twisted around a wooden pen holder and used as a swab. There were small bottles of camphor, aconite for fever, peppermint for tummy ache, and a flask of port wine for tonic if one became weak or dizzy. And Mrs. Reynolds remembers that "it was surprising how many menfolks had dizzy spells."

Then there was onion syrup. Onions were sliced thin and placed on a pie tin in a warm oven until all the juice was extracted. It was a standard cold remedy. Mrs. Reynolds says she liked to eat the sweet onions themselves, and still likes onions — fried, boiled, pickled, in soup, or cooked with liver, steak or bacon.

Fae Montgomery used the expression, "mushy," in her Morrill Mail column, then pondered over it a bit . . .

"That word, 'mushy,' sure dates me, doesn't it? Young folks of today would probably call me a square, or is that a bygone word, as well?"

Clarks News Editor John Carter chuckles as he tells how he has his Republican sister-in-law and a few others fooled . . .

"Just because I've been throwing a few barbs at the Democratic administration lately, they thought I had switched political affiliation. We Democrats wrangle among ourselves from one campaign to another to keep in practice so we can lambast ---- out of the Republicans just before election."

Norris Alfred, Polk Progress newsman, is either going to give up writing or go back to smoking. A club dedicated to forsaking the weed dropped rapidly from five members to two in a week's time, hardly enough left to be called a club.

He himself had gone 12 days when he took typewriter in hand to expound on the subject. Asked if he were nervous, he responded:

Helen Lough—in fact, the whole Lough family—were trying their hand at whittling during the time that son Tim was practicing to get an achievement rating for Cub Scout work. A piece of balsa wood a yard long and several inches wide was not too much. Whittlings and shavings littered the house for a few days, and the band-aids were in general use. "I'm convinced," wrote Mrs. Lough in the Albion News, "that whittling should be taught only by grandpas who have been retired enough years to become proficient in the art—or is it a forgotten art? Just how long has it been since anyone has seen a whittling grandpa?"

"No, we always had this twitch of the shoulder — we are a born ear-puller — our hands always did shake — our nose is itching and we have to rub it — never felt better — the drumbeat we are doing on the counter top is just to keep time to a song we are humming."

Mrs. Lester Eastwood, who writes a column for the Pawnee Republican, says it's beginning to sound like spring out in the country, with the cry of wild geese heading northward, the squeal of little pigs and cows bawling for wandering calves . . .

"Here and there on fine days there's the screech of a chain saw as farmers trim trees and brush from fence rows . . . The barking of dogs tell the neighborhood that the coyote hunters are out. The sound of water running in the creek foretold the coming of the first spring rain."

MARQUIS CHILDS

New Effort In Field Of Education

WASHINGTON—With Congress about to take what one cynical member describes as a recess within a recess, the prospect for legislation in major fields where the need has long been recognized is bleak indeed.

One of those fields is education. A jurisdictional tangle over aid to medical education has put a new obstacle in the way of what seemed to have the most promise — loans or grants, and perhaps both, to colleges and universities. With two powerful committee chairmen contending for their respective rights, those who oppose any legislation, such as wily Howard Smith presiding over the Rules Committee, have a perfect opening.

What is most striking is the fact that the alarm of only five or six years ago over the public schools has seemed to fade away. It is as if the problem of overcrowding, underpaid and overworked teachers, antiquated and even dangerous school buildings had by some unseen force been solved.

But what has happened, in the view of knowledgeable observers, is that out of frustration with repeated failure to make any progress, the whole question of the deteriorating American educational system has been swept under the rug. Plagued by the religious controversy, legislators have shunted the challenge of aid to elementary and secondary schools into the background. Apparently in the conviction that out of sight out of mind, all except a few conscientious members of Congress are content to let it stay there.

But a new national committee for support of the public schools has come into being with the aim of getting attention focused on a condition that has, if anything, worsened in the years in which a solution has seemed to recede. Made up of more than 500 members in 45 states, the goal is not any particular piece of legislation nor even federal aid as such.

A two-day session to be held here early next month will try to dramatize the threat to America's future in what the committee chairman, Mrs. Agnes E. Meyer, has called an educational system "geared to our isolationist, agricultural, pre-industrial era." Covering a wide political spectrum, the committee is analyzing the complex difficulties that stand in the way of adequate school support as the burden of an ever-increasing property tax has produced in some communities a taxpayers' revolt.

If one word could sum up the hopes of those who believe that a new effort must be made for the schools, it might be that magic word "consensus." For 15 years the search for a consensus on aid to education has gone on. It goes back to the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio who had his own formula and pushed it with the vigor he brought to every enterprise he supported.

President Eisenhower wistfully sought a consensus and he had the energetic assistance of Marion B. Folsom, his secretary of health, education and welfare, widely acknowledged to have been the most effective individual to have served in that post since its creation nearly 11 years ago. Folsom, who returned to the top executive position in Eastman Kodak at the end of the Eisenhower administration, is a participant in the new effort to alert public opinion to an awareness of what a declining school system means.

At the start of the current year, President Kennedy sent to Congress a lengthy message on education, with a proposal for an omnibus bill covering all forms of federal aid. This had been prepared under the direction of the new United States commissioner of education, Francis Keppel. Keppel left the deanship of the faculty of education at Harvard to take a post that occupies a kind of no man's land in the long controversy over aid to education.

On the theory that a half or a third of a loaf is better than none, the House has united the education package sent up by the President. Rep. Edith Green, chairman of the subcommittee considering federal help, hopes for aid to higher education and perhaps also for a separate bill for vocational education. But that is at present the outermost limit of hope.

In a session that Republicans are already saying will far outstrip the do-nothingism of Harry Truman's "Eighty-Worst" Congress, a consensus on anything is hard to find. Military appropriations, even beyond those requested by the administration, get an unquestioning consent which is translated into votes with an almost automatic response. Likewise in the space race Congress appears willing to go along with little or no question.

From the present perspective, that is just about it. But there are citizens across the country convinced that, if only the need can be brought to full public view, an outpouring of public opinion will work its way on Congress.

Success Of West Lincoln Annexation Action Questioned

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Has West Lincoln successfully annexed an 8-block area adjoining its eastern edge and the northern edge of Lincoln?

"It's all done and legal," said Lloyd Chapman, attorney for West Lincoln, commenting Thursday on the surprise annexation move by the Village Board at a special meeting Wednesday night.

But, City Atty. Ralph Nelson said his opinion is that West Lincoln "must petition for District Court approval before the annexation can become valid under state law."

Rules Suspended

The West Lincoln board adopted an annexation ordinance for the 8-block area—known as Midway Addition—after suspending its rules to give the measure 3 readings and approving an emergency clause.

Chapman said the annexation has been officially filed with Lancaster County's register of deeds and the emergency ordinance for the annexation officially posted in the village.

Board Chairman Richard Trotter and other members frankly admit the extra-ordinary session was called after they learned that Lincoln officials were preparing an ordinance to annex the same area.

'Protecting Source'

However, Trotter declined to reveal the source of the information, saying, "We are protecting our source."

Nelson confirmed Thursday that a requested ordinance annexing the same area had been prepared for introduction next Monday before the City Council.

Planning Director Douglas Brogden, also obviously surprised by the West Lincoln annexation move, said owners in the area had contacted the city about annexing the land to the city and not West Lincoln.

Brogden said preparation of the ordinance had been requested by a Lincoln City Council member and its drafting followed normal procedures and took several weeks.

In Lincoln Plan

Noting the Midway Addition is within Lincoln's 3-mile zoning and subdivision control, Brogden said the area should have residential growth and is in Lincoln's comprehensive plan.

The annexed land is now used for some residential, business and commercial uses, but reportedly more residential development is under consideration.

However, Trotter said the village board feels "this area should be part of the village since it was originally platted in 1889 as part of West Lincoln."

'Way To East'

"We want to serve the area with utilities and should have the opportunity for growth," he said. "East is our logical way to grow."

Nelson said the West Lincoln annexation move "definitely involves some legal questions."

He noted the village is now receiving city water and sewer service without any contract with the City of Lincoln because a previous contract has expired.

"There is also a question whether the West Lincoln board can extend city utilities into the annexed area without City Council approval."

He also noted the village has no fire protection except by contract with the city.

The village annexation ordinance said an emergency existed because improvements constructed in the area require immediate utility service and fire and police protection from the village.

Nelson said his opinion is that state law requires the West Lincoln board to petition District Court for annexation of the area and to set forth the material benefits and advantages to be derived from such annexation with due court notice upon affected landowners.

However, Chapman said the "annexation became official with the village board's action and publication of the ordinance by its posting Thursday in the village."

Chapman said "a majority of the property owners involved signed petitions to the board for the annexation and no petition to the District Court is required."

He Can't Recall

He said he couldn't recall how many landowners, had signed the "contemporary" petition for annexation, but added there is "also the petition for annexation in the original 1889 plat."

Lincoln Mayor D. L. Tyrrell had no comment on the West Lincoln annexation move except to say he anticipated the matter would be discussed Monday by the council.

West Lincoln board members said it was the village's first annexation in at least 40 years.

Senators Pass Two Tax Bills

Two bills growing out of last year's McClelland tax studies in Nebraska were among 6 passed by the Legislature Thursday.

The measures, LB374 and LB375, were introduced principally by Sen. Kenneth Bowen of Red Cloud, chairman of the Legislative Council Interim Study Committee which hired Dr. Harold McClelland of California to make an intensive study of the tax picture in the state.

LB375 requires complete reappraisals of land and improvements in all counties at stated intervals. In counties which have separate county assessors, the reappraisals must be made no oftener than every 6 years or less frequently than every 16 years. In counties where the county clerk serves as the county assessor, the reappraisals must be made every 10 years.

The companion measure, LB374, authorizes the tax commissioner to set standards for reappraisals and gives preference to professional reappraisal firms for such projects. Adequate maps for the location of property also are required.

The bills are among several introduced at the current session and designed to strengthen property tax law enforcement.

The full list of bills passed Thursday (E-emergency clause):

LB374 (Bowen, Stalder, Carpenter)—Authorizing the tax commissioner to set standards for the reappraisal of lands and improvements, and requiring location maps. (38-2).

LB375 (Bowen, Stalder, Carpenter)—Requiring complete property tax reappraisals to be made not oftener than every 6 years or more infrequently than 16 years in counties which have a separate county assessor, and every 10 years in counties where the county clerk serves as the county assessor. (35-7).

LB315 (Carpenter) — Authorizing the State Agriculture Department to adopt necessary rules and regulations to carry out duties assigned to it. (39-4).

LB529 (Carpenter)—Exempting volunteer firemen from civil suit liability for emergency public first aid and rescue services provided in good faith. (E). (43-0).

LB237 (Mahoney, Orme, Skarda)—Providing for the compulsory isolation and examination of tuberculous persons who refuse to be isolated or examined. (43-0).

LB367 (Stalder)—Eliminating the requirement that warrants issued by first class cities to be held for 5 days before delivery, and eliminating the requirement that such warrants carry the city seal and certain funds status information. (E). (41-1).

Legislative Bills Introduced

Bills introduced in the Legislature Thursday:

LB769 (Public Works Committee)—Authorizing the director of water resources to grant and administer permits to municipalities to use ground water and ground water storage in a manner that will avoid waste.

LB770 (Miscellaneous Subjects Committee)—Defining self-propelled mobile homes and providing registration fees for such homes.

Legislators Sing 'Happy Birthday'

Sen. Terry Carpenter turned 63 Thursday — and said he feels that old.

Fellow lawmakers took time out to sing "Happy Birthday" to the Scottsbluff senator, who then stood up to admit that he is 63 years old.

"I want you to know, too," he said, "that I feel every year, every month, every day and every hour of it."

State Flag Bill Advanced

Legislators Thursday gave 33-0 first round approval to a bill designating the state banner as the official state flag and authorizing it to be flown at time and places when the United States flag is displayed.

Present law permits flying the state banner over the Capitol only when the Legislature is in session.

Sen. Eugene Mahoney of Omaha, co-introducer of LB556 with Sen. Marvin E. Stromer of Lincoln, said the wider display of the state flag will be particularly timely with the state's centennial coming up in 1967.

It was the only bill to receive general file consideration Thursday.

Legislature Approves Amended Meat Prices Resolution

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

The Legislature Thursday adopted an amended resolution which "encouraged" Gov. Frank Morrison to use his statutory powers to initiate an investigation of meat and livestock prices.

The proposal, Resolution 26, was approved on a 29-11 vote.

As amended upon a motion by Sen. Richard Marvel of Hastings, the resolution encouraged the governor to use existing personnel and facilities in agricultural economics and agricultural statistics. It provided no appropriation of funds.

Morrison had earlier announced that he would place State Agriculture Director Pearle Finigan in charge of the probe if necessary funds were made available.

Finigan had originally proposed a legislative investigation of the matter.

Marvel said Thursday he does not believe the investigation would involve additional expenditures if it makes use of agricultural experts within the state. However, if funds are requested, such expenditures could be justified before "the proper legislative committee," Marvel said.

Estimated Cost

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff estimated that a probe will cost $50,000 "if it is done right." Carpenter, who co-signed the resolution, said he doesn't want "a whitewash."

Thursday's debate was smattered with allusions to partisan political motives.

Sen. Cecil Craft of North Platte said he would oppose a probe "because the governor has used his high office to thwart the majority opinion of this house in recent weeks, and I have no reason to think he won't do so with this resolution."

Sen. George Syas of Omaha renewed his motion to kill the proposal, noting that he "object(s) to placing this Legislature on record as endorsing an investigation." The kill motion failed, 13-28.

Sen. Frank Nelson of O'Neill, chairman of the Agriculture Committee, criticized Morrison and Finigan for making it necessary "to tell them to get on the job and do their work. Maybe they need prodding from this Legislature to do their duty."

Sen. Michael Russillo of Omaha urged the lawmakers to "drop the matter," suggesting that the issue "stems from Washington."

Not Qualified

Sen. Sam Klaver of Omaha said the Agriculture Department "does not have the experience and the qualifications to conduct an investigation."

Sen. Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth, chief sponsor of the resolution, said many livestock feeders support a probe and "we ought to take a look and see if the law of supply and demand is functioning."

Sen. Elvin Adamson of Nenzel said he favors "a look at the matter to bring the facts to the people." However, he said, the probe ought to delve into all factors, including the cost of packaging, trading stamps, promotional gimmicks and all costs.

Voting no on the motion to adopt were Sens. Craft, Thomas Damrow of Beatrice, Clifton Foster of Bradshaw, Albert Kjar of Lexington, Richard Lysinger of Ravenna, William Moulton of Omaha, Fern Hubbard Orme of Lincoln, Dale Payne of Papillion, Russillo, Syas and Matt Wylie of Elgin.

Not voting: Sens. Maurice Kremer of Aurora, Nelson and T. C. Reeves of Central City.

Ground Water Bill Introduced

A groundwater bill said to have been concurred in by both irrigators and urban interests was introduced in the Legislature Thursday as the 769th bill of the current session.

Brought in by the Public Works Committee, LB769 authorizes the director of water resources to grant and administer permits to municipalities to use ground water and ground water storage in a manner that will avoid waste.

The bill provides for hearings when persons feel they have been adversely affected.

Sen. Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth said the bill represents a sort of compromise growing out of meetings between irrigators and urban representatives.

Stock Growers Not Taking Stand On Income Tax

Omaha (AP) — Bob Howard of Alliance, secretary of the Nebraska Stock Growers Association, said that the association is neither supporting nor opposing the state income tax bill now before the Legislature.

Howard said the association's executive council had decided that no position would be taken on the bill because the council is divided on the question. The organization represents cattlemen in the Nebraska brand area.

California Botanist To Speak At NU

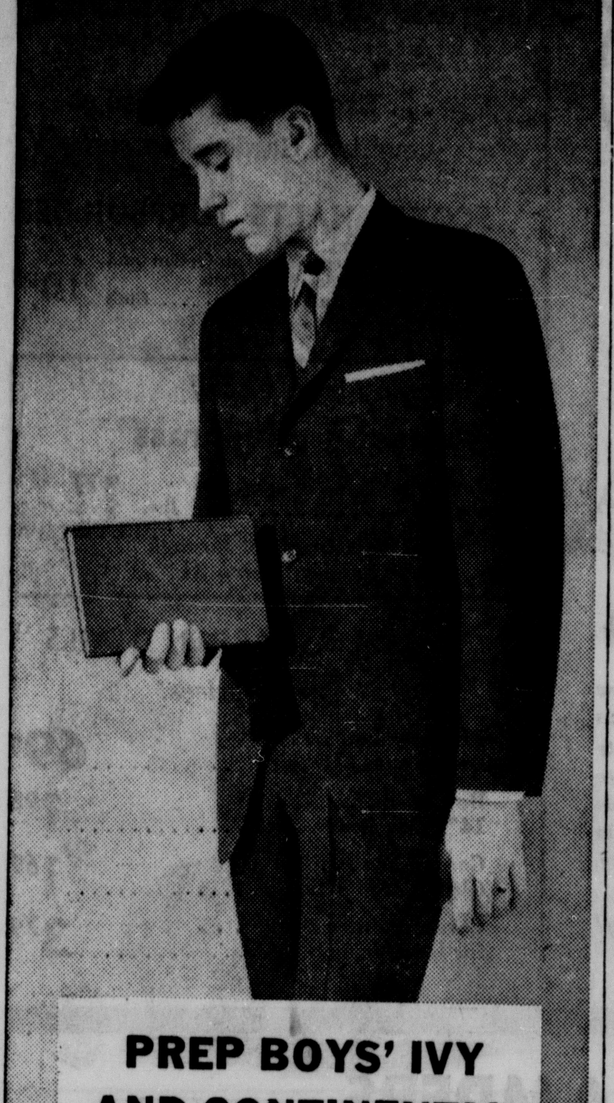

A nationally recognized expert in the physiology of reproduction in plants will visit the University of Nebraska campus.

Dr. Leonard Machlis, chairman of the department of Botany at the University of California at Berkeley, will speak on "Fertilization Insurance in Plants" at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, and on "Chemotropic Response of the Pollen Tubes of Snapdragon to Calcium" at 4 p.m. Wednesday. Both talks will be in room 218, Bessey Hall.

University staff and students will have the opportunity to confer with Dr. Machlis during his visit.

During World War II, Dr. Machlis served as a physiologist doing government research work. He has been head of California's botany department since 1961. He is also editor of the "Annual Review of Plant Physiology."

Unincorporated Mutual Insurance Regulation OK

The Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee Thursday advanced 4-0 a bill seeking the regulation and licensing of unincorporated mutual insurance associations by the State Insurance Department.

The bill, LB627, would require all such associations to hold annual meetings and to pay a $2 filing fee. Too, they would be required to turn over to the Insurance Department annual records and evidence of insurance coverage.

Opposing the measure was Kenneth Swenney of Imperial, president of 6 such insurance associations in southwest Nebraska.

Frank J. Barrett, state insurance director, said the measure "is not an attempt to outlaw unincorporated insurance associations, but merely an attempt to set up reasonable standards under which they may operate."

Advanced 5-0 was LB572 which proposes to empower the Insurance Department to either approve or reject life insurance and annuity policy forms used by insurance companies operating in Nebraska.

Killed 5-1 was LB642 which sought to increase from one-half mile to 7,500-feet the area limitation within which a bank could establish an auxiliary teller service. It was sought by the Union Bank and Trust Co. of Lincoln.

Held was LB560 which seeks to limit to $2.50 the value of inducements that may be offered by building and loan associations operating under the supervision of the State Department of Banking.

The committee agreed 6-0 to recommend the Legislature introduce a bill seeking to extend from 3 to 5 years the period within which industrial loans made by industrial loan and investment firms must be paid back.

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff requested the bill be introduced.

Craft Convinced North Platte Best Trade School Site

State Sen. Cecil Craft of North Platte Thursday said he is still convinced North Platte is the best location for a second Nebraska trade school.

But Craft added he believe a study should be made by the Legislature of various spots proposed before deciding. Craft sponsored a resolution approved by the Legislature calling for such a study by an interim committee which would report back to members of the 1965 session.

Craft questioned the feasibility of using the State School of Agriculture at Curtis for a trade school.

Sen. Albert Kjar of Lexington said he would offer Curtis as the site when the Legislature debates LB181. This bill directs the establishment of a second trade school but names no location.

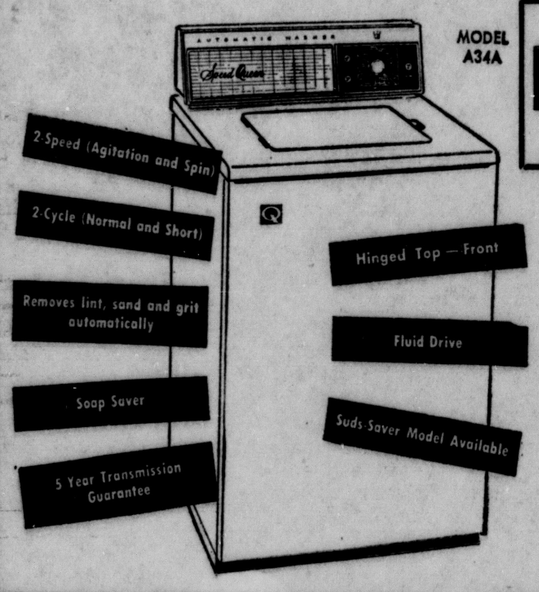

Craft said Lowell Welsh, director of the Milford Trade School, told him and some other senators that it would cost about $2 million to set up a new school.

"I don't think the Legislature should decide before making sure it is in the right place," the North Platte lawmaker said.

State Junior College Aid Advanced

By NANCY RAY
Star Staff Writer

State aid amounting to $45 per student per semester for junior colleges and the freshmen and sophomores at Omaha University was recommended 5-1 by the Education Committee after lone opposition to the measure by Sen. Michael Russillo of Omaha.

LB632, would provide state aid for Nebraska resident students attending Fairbury, McCook, Norfolk and Scottsbluff Junior Colleges and the first two years at Omaha's municipal university.

Cost was estimated by proponents at $289,530 yearly for the 3,217 students attending these schools.

Community Service

Witnesses favoring the bill stressed that the junior colleges, now entirely financed by their local school districts, need state support to continue their function as "community" colleges which serve students who cannot afford to leave their areas.

State senators from districts including the junior colleges, college officials, and representatives of the State Department of Education testified in favor of the measure.

Russillo criticized state aid because of its "serious effect on private colleges and schools in the state," and added: "I don't think it's necessary for Omaha University. Omaha citizens would request a tax let-up."

Fears Rush

He questioned whether other communities, eligible under the bill, might not rush to establish junior colleges if state aid is offered. "We could have 10 and eventually 20 junior colleges in this state," he warned.

Russillo said that under the bill's requirement that a local school district must have a tax base valuation of $20 million in order to start a junior college, qualifying districts include Beatrice, Columbus, Kimball, Millard, North Platte, Hastings, Fremont, Grand Island, Omaha Westside, the Omaha school district, and Lincoln.

Sen. Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth, principal introducer of the bill, stressed the safeguards in the measure and called Russillo "a dedicated one-man committee to oppose state junior colleges."

'Never Overboard'

Ruhnke added that "this Legislature has never been accused of going overboard in establishing educational facilities."

In other action, the Education Committee reported to the floor LB349, requiring annual examination of the financial records of school districts by public accountants, except that in the case of Class I (rural) school districts, such examinations could be required by petition of 10% of the qualified electors.

Workmen's Benefits Boosts Go To Floor

Bills providing boosts in workmen's compensation and unemployment insurance benefits were advanced to the floor of the Legislature Thursday by the Labor and Public Welfare Committee.

Action came in a special executive session.

The bills were heard Wednesday.

Advanced 4-2 was LB544, boosting weekly limits on workmen's compensation benefits from a $37 to $42 maximum and from a $20 to $30 minimum.

After 300 weeks of total disability, maximum payments would be raised from $27.50 to $34.50 and minimums from $17 to $26.

The bill also raises burial expense payments from a $350 maximum to $500.

Advanced 6-0 was LB607, a measure increasing maximum unemployment benefits from $34 to $38 weekly. The bill also tightens restrictions on application of the employment security law.

No Age Prejudice

Also advanced, on a 4-2 count, was LB724, an act which would prohibit discrimination in employment because of age.

The measure was amended to eliminate exceptions and to provide appeal procedures.

Killed on a 6-0 vote was LB545, a proposal which would provide a new formula for determining workmen's compensation benefits based on average weekly wages.

2 Unopposed Ag Committee Bills OKd 4-0

The Legislature's Agriculture Committee sent two unopposed bills to the Unicameral floor on 4-0 votes Thursday after brief public hearings.

LB719 clarifies law covering multiple improvement projects in cities and villages to make clear that single bids and single contract awards on the multiple improvements are permitted.

LB714 removes limitations on the authority of county boards to grade, pave, curb, gutter or hard surface federal aid secondary highways within city limits.

Both bills were introduced by Sen. William B. Brandt of Unadilla.

Supporting testimony for LB719 came from Douglas McKnight, a consulting engineer speaking for engineers, and C. A. Roberts of a Lincoln construction firm, speaking for Nebraska Associated General Contractors.

Carr Favors Observing Of Parking Laws

Frank Carr, candidate for City Council, said Thursday he believes parking time regulations in any Lincoln area "should be observed and enforced."

In a prepared statement, he said he "is aware that parking meters are confined solely to downtown Lincoln" and apologized for an earlier statement referring to "parking meters in Havelock."

However, Carr repeated his belief that the Havelock business district is entitled to a foot patrolman.

'1 In Car, 1 Afoot'

"I'm told that there is a cruiser that works the area, and while one man stays in the car, the other checks doors and performs some of the duties of a foot patrolman."

"This is better than nothing," he added, "however, it does not fill the need of an officer assigned to cover a beat on foot."

Carr said the police force "seems to be doing a commendable job for the number of men on the force," but added he agreed "with officials from the police chief down that the number should be increased."

U.S. Suit Says Zelen Not Paying Minimum Wages

An injunctige suit against Hymen B. Zelen of Lincoln was filed Thursday by the U.S. Department of Labor in Federal District Court.

The complaint alleges that Zelen, doing business as Bankers Mate Pen Co. at 247 So. 20th, has repeatedly violated the Fair Labor Standards Act by failing to pay the required minimum wage.

Zelen allegedly employes 5 to 8 persons in the production and distribution of ballpoint and regular-type pens sold in interstate commerce.

It is alleged Zelen failed to pay the minimum $1 hourly wage between September 1960 and Sept. 3, 1961, and $1.15 thereafter.

The government asks that Zelen be restrained and enjoined from violating provisions of the federal law.

DOUBLE PLAY:

The most wanted grass fertilizer plus the best known crabgrass control

[AT A VERY SPECIAL SAVING!]

How can I have a thicker, lovelier lawn this year? And how can I avoid crabgrass?

Many home owners are asking these two questions right now. And this year the answers are clearer than ever.

Take the fertilizer question first. There are literally hundreds of brands on the market. Good, bad and indifferent. But one stands out head-and-shoulders above the others—TURF BUILDER.® It's the leader.

Feeds as it's needed

Only TURF BUILDER is Renarized—the patented process that locks in the nutrients until the right combination of biological forces gradually brings about their release. (No leaching away in rain. No under or over-feeding, regardless of the weather.) It's a protein-builder that forces grass to produce many new underground shoots, develops sturdier growth.

Ask your neighbor

Second question—crabgrass. Here, too, there are now all kinds of controls, most of them newcomers. And again, one stands out, with an unmatched record of success. More than two million people have used HALTS® in the past six years with dramatic results. Your own neighbors can tell you about it. You simply walk it on now. HALTS stops crabgrass before it starts.

Four jobs at once

In a half hour you can put TURF BUILDER and HALTS on 2500 sq ft of lawn. Then, if you should want to plant seed you can go right ahead. (No need to wait a month or two as with other crabgrass controls.) And as a final bonus, HALTS will also rid your lawn of grubs and the moles and pests that feed on them.

How to save a quick $2
(or even $7!)

Your Scotts Dealer is all set to help solve your lawn problems and save you money in the bargain. For a limited time he is featuring a bag of TURF BUILDER and a bag of HALTS at a special $2 saving—and if you need a new Scotts Spreader he can save you an additional $5.

Block New Try For Hate Meet

Rio De Janeiro (UPI)—Anti-Communist Gov. Carlos LaCerda threw a cordon of steel-helmeted police around the National Students Union Building Thursday to block a new Communist effort to hold a "Hate America" congress here.

Groups of Communists backed by 40 leftist congressmen showed up at the Red-infiltrated student union headquarters at noon after announcing earlier this "continental congress" of solidarity with Cuba would be held across Guanabara Bay at Niteroi.

They found tough police troops surrounding the building.

Blame U.S.

One of the congressmen who flew here from Brasilia to lend the prestige—and diplomatic immunity—of their office to the congress sponsors blamed the United States for the new setback.

One student said bitterly Lacerda's new move probably served to cancel out the scheduled start of the continental congress. Previous pre-congress rallies, billed as national "warmups" for the international meeting were flops in Niteroi and Sao Paulo.

Nab Class, Instructor Of Burglary

New York (AP) — A modern-day fagin who operated an on-the-job training program in office breaking and safe cracking was arrested Thursday with 11 of his pupils on charges of engineering 200 burglaries.

Police said the group used everything from walkie-talkie radios to car petting ruses to avoid police detection.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Fred Baroni said the group had netted about $250,000 in the last 18 months.

Carry Radios

Baroni said the gang used two girls carrying two-way radios as lookouts and decoys while male members went about their safe cracking chores in supermarkets, chain stores and office buildings.

Many times, Baroni said, the safes were taken from stores and offices by the gang, opened at its headquarters in a Bronx television repair shop and then used in safe cracking classes.

Among those arrested were 3 burglar alarm experts and the gang leader, identified by police as television repairman John L. Solimine, 49.

Baroni said the gang often chose stores and offices located under elevated train platforms where lookouts with two-way radios could scan a wide area for police and warn of their approach.

Would Embrace

In some instances, he said, a man and woman member of the gang would sit in a car near a burglary site and fall into an embrace if a policeman approached.

The policeman's attention would be diverted from the burglary in his efforts to chase the petters.

In the planning stages at the school, Baroni said, was a scheme to treat currency with a radioactive substance which could be detected with a geigercounter.

Never Tried

Under the plan, which never was put into operation, such currency would be used to make a purchase at a planned burglary site. That night, he said, the group would use the geigercounter to detect where the store owner hid the day's receipts.

Police said those taken into custody, including a pregnant girl, ranged in ages from 19 to 49.

China Says India Trying To Throw Them Out Of Tibet

Tokyo (AP) — Red China accused India Thursday of using Tibetan refugees in an attempt to throw the Chinese out of Tibet and declared that "India's expansionist dream is doomed to be shattered."

Radio Peking said a Chinese note charged that India permitted refugees to establish a Tibetan constitution, called untrue Indian statements that Tibetan refugees are forbidden any political activity and added: "The Chinese government hereby serves the Indian government a stern warning — interference in China's internal affairs is absolutely impermissible."

POLICE BREAK UP NEGRO VOTER MARCH

Greenwood, Miss. (AP) — A Negro voter registration march was broken up Thursday as police kept a tight grip on a potentially explosive civil rights struggle.

A Negro minister who led the some 50 marchers said he was bitten by a police dog during the confused action, a block from the courthouse. No arrests were made.

The brief skirmish between marchers and police highlighted a day of tense calm. Street barricades in front of the courthouse were raised and then removed a few minutes later.

Traffic Threat

Police said the marchers, who strode along the sidewalk, posed a threat to normal traffic. Negroes who arrived at the courthouse in smaller groups were not stopped.

Civilian volunteers, equipped with riot clubs and wearing yellow Civil Defense helmets, rode with the police in squad cars.

In a city court trial, 6 men arrested during Wednesday's demonstration were convicted of disorderly conduct. One man was released, two cases dismissed, another postponed and Lawrence Guyat of Chicago was held in contempt of court.

Maximum punishment on the charge of disorderly conduct is a $200 fine and 4 months in jail. Sentences will be pronounced Friday.

Guyat was cited for contempt when he interrupted Police Chief Curtis Lary's testimony to object to Lary's opinion that the demonstration posed the threat of "a race riot or anything else."

The voter registration drive in this delta plantation country, where Negroes outnumber whites nearly 2-1, has been spurred by several flashes of night violence — including bullets.

One Negro registration worker is recovering from .45 caliber bullet wounds. The FBI and Civil Rights Commission have had investigators in the area for weeks.

Urged on by their leaders, Negroes stood in line outside the courthouse registration office. They were admitted one by one to take the qualification test.

A group of sheriffs from surrounding counties gathered Wednesday night for a briefing by Sheriff J. R. Gilfoy of Hinds County (Jackson).

Gilfoy outlined procedures used in Jackson during the freedom rider troubles of 1961. A police department spokesman said the sheriffs were consultants, not reinforcements.

Fair Employment's OK Makes History

Labor and Public Welfare committee members made history Thursday by reporting out LB347 — a Fair Employment Practices Act—and a companion civil rights measure to the Unicameral floor for discussion.

Similar FEPC bills have been repeatedly introduced in past sessions, but none have survived the committee and been decided by the 43-man Legislature.

The committee voted 5-0, with two abstentions, for the FEPC measure, which prohibits discrimination in employment because of race, creed or color, and names the state labor commissioner as chief enforcement officer.

Committee amendments to the bill raised the size of business establishments covered from the original figure of not less than 4 employes to coverage of firms employing not less than 8 persons, and cut penalties under the act from the original $1,000 fine or one year imprisonment to maximums of $100 fines and 30 days in prison.

A companion measure, LB-364, won 6-0 approval of the committee.

It extends the present law banning discrimination in the treatment of customers by inns, restaurants and other listed establishments to include motels, hotels, trailer courts, beauty parlors, taverns and places of recreation.

At public hearings on the two bills last week, the FEPC measure drew strong support from Gov. Frank Morrison.

Law Clarifying Claims Moved

The salaries and Claims Committee Thursday voted 5-0 to advance LB668 which would clarify the law respecting who may file claims for aid from the Nebraska veterans' aid fund.

Also advanced 5-0 was LB641. It would authorize counties in which a city of the first class is located to purchase, hold, and improve public grounds and parks within limits of the county.

Held was LB518, submitted by Sen. Elvin Adamson of Nenzel.

It would require the filing of prescribed petitions before the levy for county road purposes could be imposed.

Deaf School Levy Support Strong

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

Strong support was voiced Thursday before the Budget Committee for approval of LB170, a bill calling for a special building levy to upgrade facilities of the Nebraska School for the Deaf at Omaha.

The bill, introduced by Omaha Sens. George Syas, Edward Danner and Eugene Mahoney, and Sen. Don McGinley of Ogallala, proposes a .2 of a mill levy for 4 years. This would produce about $600,000 annually.

State Board of Education member Frank Heinisch of Omaha led the proponents and told the committee that the future of the school was up to the Legislature.

Must Improve

The board has done all it can to upgrade the school through improvement of its faculty and strengthening its academic program, Heinisch said, but its facilities must be improved before it can be accredited.

He noted that the cost of building "is not going to get any less," adding that the "more we delay, the more it will cost to do the job which eventually will be done."

Parents, Graduates

Included among the witnesses were parents of deaf children and graduates of the school.

Several of the parents testified they had removed their children from the school and sent them to private institutions a considerable distance away because they felt their youngsters' educations were being "short-changed" at the Nebraska institution.

One father pleaded with the committee to "do for our children what we would do for yours."

Needs listed for the school, in the following priority, were a new primary school unit, a multipurpose recreation unit, a new boiler in the heating plant, an academic-vocational building, a new girls' dormitory, boys' dormitory, engineer's residence, athletic field and garage.

Another helpful idea  ...from Fairmont!

This dollar dinner is a man-size meal for four! It's packed with protein, because it's made with Fairmont Cottage Cheese-- the cottage cheese with DELICATE, NATURAL FLAVOR.

NOODLES 'N' CHEESE CONTINENTAL

- 4 oz. egg noodles
- 1 qt. boiling water
- 2 cups Fairmont Cottage Cheese
- ½ cup Fairmont Homogenized Milk
- 2 tbsp. onion, finely chopped
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- ¼ tsp. garlic salt
- 1 tsp. salt
- ⅛ tsp. pepper
- Dash Tabasco sauce
- ½ cup grated American Cheese
- ½ cup cracker crumbs
- Paprika

Cook noodles in boiling water until tender (about 7 minutes). Drain and rinse in hot water. Combine Fairmont Cottage Cheese, milk, onion, Worcestershire sauce, garlic salt, salt, pepper, and dash of Tabasco. Mix well and add to noodles. Put into a greased casserole. Top with grated cheese and cracker crumbs. Sprinkle with paprika. Cover casserole and bake in a moderate oven at 350° F. for 30 to 40 minutes. Remove cover for last 10 minutes of baking to brown top. Makes 4 large servings. Ingredients cost approximately 50c.

CREAMY COLESLAW

- 2½ cups shredded cabbage
- 1½ cups Fairmont Cottage Cheese
- 1 tbsp. minced onion
- ¼ cup salad dressing
- ½ tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. caraway seed (optional)
- Dash pepper
- Dash Tabasco sauce

Rinse cabbage in cold water. Drain well. Combine Fairmont Cottage Cheese, onion, salad dressing, salt, caraway seed, pepper and Tabasco sauce. Mix well and add to cabbage. Toss until well distributed. Chill. Makes 4 large servings. Ingredients cost approximately 33c.

CHEESE 'N' SPICE COOKIES

- ¼ cup Fairmont Butter
- ⅔ cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 tsp. vanilla flavor
- ½ cup Fairmont Cottage Cheese
- 1¼ cups sifted flour
- ½ tsp. baking soda
- ¼ tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. cinnamon
- ¼ tsp. nutmeg
- ½ cup finely chopped light seedless raisins

Cream Fairmont Butter and sugar until smooth. Add egg and vanilla flavoring and beat until light and fluffy. Blend in Fairmont Cottage Cheese thoroughly. Sift together flour, baking soda, salt and spices. Add to creamed mixture, stirring only until well-blended. Fold in chopped raisins. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased cookie sheet. Bake at 350° F. for 12-15 minutes. Makes approximately 2 dozen cookies. If stored for 3-4 days, keep well covered. Ingredients cost approximately 17c per dozen.

Bids Opened On Big, Little Hangars

The Airport Authority opened construction bids Thursday on two large maintenance hangars and smaller T-multiple hangars for the general aviation area at the Lincoln Municipal Airport.

Behlen Manufacturing Co. of Columbus was apparent low bidder at $472,528 for two large maintenance hangars or, alternatively, $239,862 for one.

Only other comparable bids were $532,788 or $280,361 by Olson Construction Co., Lincoln.

Behlen was also apparently low at $70,676 for moving the T-multiple hangars from Union Airport to the Municipal Airport. Other bids were George Cook Construction Co., Lincoln, $75,460, and Lamphere Building Service Inc., Lincoln, $71,657.

Lamphere Building Service was low at $106,571 for 30 new T-multiple hangars with an alternative bid of $36,136 for each additional 10 units.

Other comparable bids were George Cook, $151,827 and $50,450, and Behlen Manufacturing, $141,042 and $47,001.

Behlen submitted the only alternative bid to buy and remove the existing Union Airport hangars for $14,000.

Authority Chairman Leo J. Beck Jr. said the board would award a contract at its regular meeting next Tuesday when an analysis and recommendation on the bids and alternatives is to be made by the board's architect, Selmer A. Solheim & Associates.

'Go For Whole'

Member Charles Stuart suggested the board should "go for the whole works" in a combination of alternative bids totalling $713,634.

However, Beck suggested further board discussion should await the consulting architect's analysis and report next Tuesday.

In other action, the board accepted the low bid of $1,455,661.41 by the Abel Construction Co., Lincoln, for constructing the 4,000-foot municipal runway and related taxiways and aprons.

The low bid of $81,656.50 by General Concrete Co., another Abel company, was accepted for construction of the service road to the general aviation area.

Bids on these projects were opened Tuesday. Harold Hoskins & Associates, consulting engineers to the authority, recommended approval, noting the two combined low bids totalled 6.3% under the engineering estimate of $1,641,815.80.

Lincoln Travelers Association Post Chooses Gordon

Robert M. Gordon was elected president of Post C (Lincoln), Nebraska Division of the Travelers Protective Association, at the 1963-64 annual meeting.

The main item of business was the safety program, in which Post C has won first honor. The Nebraska division won the highest award for statewide promotion of child safety.

Other new officers elected were Arthur Berkheim, first vice president; Gilbert Griess, second vice president; A. C. Novacek, third vice president, and Nathan Grossman, secretary-treasurer.

New directors for two-year terms are Ed. T. Hoffman, Frank Melker, Ralph Queen and Richard Pekar.

Red Cross Rural Drive Nets $3,021

Results of the recent Lancaster County Red Cross rural fund campaign totalled $3,021, it was announced at the annual Rural Fund Dinner at the Scottish Rite Temple Thursday evening.

Co-chairmen for the drive were Elmer Christiansen and Richard Lefferdink.

Dr. Clarence J. Forsberg, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, was the featured speaker at the dinner.

STATE LIVESTOCK FEEDERS TO CALL ANTI-PROBE MEET

Exeter — Arden Johnson, president of the Nebraska Livestock Feeders Association, said here Thursday that he planned to call a special meeting of the board of directors to stress again opposition to a meat probe to be conducted by the governor or other groups at the Statehouse.

Expense Account Laws Affecting Wholesale Beef

Washington, D.C.—Officers and directors of the National Livestock Feeders Association, in recent meetings with the substantial decline in the government leaders here, said wholesale price of prime ribs and loins gives evidence that new expense account regulations have affected beef consumption.

From early January to the end of the first week in March, these cuts had dropped approximately twice as much as other cuts in consumption from the same grade carcasses, the feeders told Washington sources.

In the opinion of association officials, confusion on types of business expenditures permitted under the new regulations is largely responsible for the alarming decline in restaurant business, the feeders told Mortimer Caplin, commissioner of internal revenue.

"We want to clear up the report that some feeders association members have favored the probe, as the officers of the state association have received no reports of this nature," Johnson said.

Johnson has warned that probe of meat prices would be confusing to the housewife while prices have declined in all segments of the industry.

London (AP)—The United States will represent British interests in the Somali Republic, which broke off diplomatic relations with the British earlier this month. The Foreign Office, in announcing this, said Somali interests in Britain would be represented by the Italian government.

No Prediction On Greyhound Building Date

Greyhound Bus Corp. officials said Thursday that it was too early to predict when construction might start on a new bus terminal to be built at the northwest corner of 10th and P.

The corporation Thursday completed purchase of the 75 by 142-foot site from Second Inevstco, Inc., a realty and investment company represented by the Joe W. Seacrest family, for $117,500.

Walter Stallings of the Greyhound central offices in Kansas City said studies now underway of the site and of Lincoln's needs would have to be completed before any price or time information could be available.

"We do expect to build a facility that will be an asset to that part of town, and to progress as quickly as possible," Stallings said.

The new terminal will be across the corner from the new depot of Continental Trailways.

EASTBOROUGH

Lamb or lion, which will it be? The month of March seems to have just begun, and already it is nearing the end of its allotted time.

The weatherman is promising showers for its exit, but in what way could passing into the month of April with its frequent spring showers, be more appropriate.

We predict that spring showers won't dampen Suburbia's social activities, however, for in addition to spring showers, April brings showers for May brides, picnics, outdoor barbecues, more frequent trips to the homes of relatives, coffees, and the always popular bridge parties.

One of the neighborhood's bridge hostesses this week was Mrs. Dale West who entertained several neighbors in honor of Mrs. Gerald Russell, who soon is to be making her home in California.

Neighbors honoring Mrs. Russell at the farewell bridge and dessert were Mrs. Eugene Alley, Mrs. J. B. McElroy, Mrs. Adam Rech, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Gay Timblin, and Mrs. William Thompson.

More bridge was hosted recently by another Eastborough resident, Mrs. Eugene Alley. Mrs. Alley's guests included Mrs. Turner Gaunt, Mrs. Willard Thompson, Mrs. Ed Sergi, Mrs. Ben Neff, Mrs. Richard Peterson, Mrs. Woodrow Van Drew, Mrs. Joe Daniels, Mrs. Hal Cleaver, Mrs. J. B. McElroy, Mrs. Jack Kapt, and Mrs. Phil Dowd.

Again, the evening ended with dessert.

The Raymond A. Degenhardt family celebrated a birthday this week, and that was of Mr. and Mrs. Degenhardt's daughter, five-year-old Joan. It sounds as though it must have been a very special day for the birthday girl, for she had both relatives and friends at her Eastborough home to help celebrate the occasion.

Driving to Lincoln on Monday for the birthday were Joan's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Richards; her aunt and cousins, Mrs. Bill Fuller and Bradley, Beverly, and Betty; a family friend, Miss Gail Campbell; a cousin, Master Kenny Jo Richards, son of another uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Richards Jr. All of the birthday visitors were from Miltonvale, Kan.

Neighborhood friends helping Joan celebrate that afternoon on the Wayne West Show and then at the Degenhardt home were Rochelle, Scott, and Keri Larson, Vicki Johnson, Connie Larson, Pat and Renee Spale, Denise and Susy Baumert, Jeanne Schulze, Vernon and Gayle Branbt, and of course, Joan's brothers and sisters, Dannie, David, Alice and Carol.

There seem to have been several moves in the neighborhood recently, and three of those that we wanted to tell you about have been made by the Donald L. Jensens, the Adam Rechs, and the Stewart O. Millers.

Lt. and Mrs. Jensen loaded their bag and baggage (and moving van) on Wednesday, and are now busy moving into their new home in Papillion. The new Papillion home is near Offut Air Force Base where Lt. Jensen now is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Rech are new Eastborough residents as of March 15. They are new to the city — but not completely. Formerly of Wichita, Kan., they moved to Lincoln several months ago and until the 15th had been residing at 3437 P St.

The neighborhood's other new residents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Miller, have been in Lincoln and their new home at 367 West Rio Road for one week now. Formerly residents of Overland Park, Kan., a Kansas City, Kan. suburb, their's was a business transfer to the Capital City.

Little ones at the Miller household are three-year-old Russell James, 11-month-old Cynthia Lee, and a very delightful little Siamese Cat, Shang.

BETHANY PARK HEIGHTS

Good news at the Bryan J. Smith home this week, and something all of Mr. and Mrs. Smith's friends and neighbors will be happy to hear, is that their son, Dale, is "better than he has been since he entered the hospital."

You may remember that 15-year-old Dale has been hospitalized since last April 15, recovering from burns suffered last spring.

A new baby in the neighborhood, in fact the first child and son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Simpkins, is Master Mark David Simpkins who was born March 18 at Bryan Memorial Hospital.

Mark David's paternal grandmother is Mrs. Dorothy Meyer, and his maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Perkins.

A birthday celebration in Bethany Park Heights this week was for Mr. Neil Zimmer, who celebrated his anniversary on Wednesday evening with members of the family.

Celebrants at the birthday dinner were Mrs. Zimmer, the Zimmers' children, Steven, Lynette, and Thomas, and Mrs. Zimmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haas.

Legislative League Elects

Concluding their 1963 season of activities on Thursday were the members of the Nebraska Legislative Ladies League, who met for luncheon and a business session at the University Club.

Mrs. Ray C. Johnson presided at the meeting, at which time new officers were elected for two-year terms.

Plan NFWC Convention

MRS. W. H. HASEBROOCK

A program of more than usual interest, one which will stress the variety of activities in which federated women's clubs participated, has been planned for the 67th annual state convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held at the Hotel Cornhusker in Lincoln next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. George W. Mechling of Lincoln, state president, will be presiding officer, and convention guests will be national officers, Mrs. William H. Hasebroock of West Point, first vice president, and Mrs. Guy J. Nelson of Calipatria, Calif., treasurer, both of whom will conduct workshop sessions.

Mrs. Nelson will speak on, "The General Federation —A Big Business", at the dinner and formal opening of convention Wednesday evening, when Governor Frank B. Morrison will be a special guest. A program of music will be given by the University of Nebraska Madrigal Singers directed by John Moran.

Mrs. Hasebroock, a past president of the state federation, will be honored at the convention luncheon on Thursday noon, and will present the address, "Tomorrow Is Today", at the convention banquet, Thursday evening, which will have as its theme, "Our Heritage." Also a banquet highlight will be a program by the University of Nebraska Singers, directed by Earl Jenkins.

Junior federated clubs in the state will hold their annual luncheon Thursday noon when guest speakers will be Dr. Galen Dodge, state director of special education, and State Senator Ross Rasmussen of Hooper.

The closing session on Friday morning will include an address, "The Demands of a Free World," by Mrs. Roy Magill of Holdrege, national division chairman for international students and past state president, and the popular program, "Nebraska's Patchwork Quilt," by Mrs. Walter R. French.

The convention will close Friday noon with the annual awards luncheon.

Marriage Revealed

In the presence of members of the family on Saturday afternoon, March 16, Miss Joan Egeberg, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roger O. Egeberg of Los Angeles, became the bride of Dr. William Hancock of Palo Alto, Calif., son of Mrs. E. W. Hancock of Lincoln. The 5 o'clock service was solemnized in the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. John Key, rector of St. Thomas Church, Episcopal, in Los Angeles.

For her wedding the bride wore a daytime ensemble of silk crepe in pastel blue with matching accessories. She carried an arrangement of pale yellow orchids.

Dr. and Mrs. Hancock will make their home in Palo Alto. The bride is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, and Dr. Hancock, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, received his medical degree at Harvard University Medical School.

PEO Chapter

Mrs. L. L. Poague will be hostess at her home, 2111 South St., to the members of Chapter FG, PEO, on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Neil Hall will be assisting hostess, and the program, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock, will be given by Mrs. H. L. Harrison.

It's not all books and studies these spring days for the students of Everett Junior High School who have spent every free moment this week with final preparations for the school's annual Spring Festival.

Theme for the festival, which will be presented at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening in the school auditorium, will be "A European Tour," and one of the colorful acts will be a Scottish sword dance to be performed by (from the left) Kathy Crewdson, Nancy Jackson, Linda Jacobs and Nancy Dinges.

Director for the festival is Miss Velma Smith.

Why Grow Old?

Care Of Your Hands

Josephine Lowman

We certainly take our hands for granted, not only as to the terrific use they are to us but as to the care they need in order to remain lovely.

Today, it is possible to do housework and wash the dishes and still have hands that are attractive. However, many women who cleanse and cream their face faithfully every day forget about these appendages which are almost always "on stage" in a very prominent role.

The habitual use of rubber gloves when the hands must be in hot water or exposed to soaps and detergents is a terrific help. Don't miss this beauty aid! The use of a hand lotion several times during the day, as well as after your bath, will pay charming dividends. These are simple measures but they can make a tremendous difference.

Also, protect your hands when you go out into cold weather or the hot sun. Be especially kind to them by treating them to gloves when doing your gardening this spring and summer. Dress them up with good manicures.

Keep them flexible with special hand exercises. These are not only valuable in a cosmetic sense but are helpful to those who feel that their fingers are getting stiffer. Many folks past early youth awaken in the morning with hands that are sore and somewhat rigid.

Try these two exercises daily: (1) Clench the fists HARD. Unclench and fling the fingers back as far as you can. At the same time separate the fingers. Continue, clenching and flinging back.

(2) Sit comfortably in a chair. Raise your right hand up in front of you. Keep your thumb still as you touch it with each finger (separately). Keep the thumb steady and lift each finger up and back as you straighten it.

If you would like to have my exercises for the hands, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 12 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Lincoln Star, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When a wife earns money by doing substitute teaching shouldn't she be allowed to spend it on whatever she pleases? My husband is a professional man with a good income. He thinks a mink stole is a frivolous luxury, and when I wanted to buy one with my own money he said, "Why is it when I earn money it is OURS, but when YOU earn money it is YOURS?" I don't work steady and do not neglect my household duties. Our children are in school all day and I enjoy substitute teaching. My husband is very reasonable except when it comes to money. Can you (or someone who has handled this problem) give me an opinion?

FRUSTRATED

DEAR FRUSTRATED: The husband is normally the provider for the family, so his income becomes his and hers. Any money a wife earns through her own efforts is HERS. But in case the family needs HERS it should quickly become THEIRS.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I went with a boy for five months. For Valentine's Day he gave me a gold locket with my initials on the front of it and his on the back. We broke up and I don't want to keep the locket. Should I give it back to him? My mother says no and my father says yes.

NORA

DEAR NORA: I agree with your mother. The boy would have no use for a gold locket with YOUR initials on the front. Put it in your drawer and forget about it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Animals CANNOT count. The behavior described in your column is instinct, not counting. If a cat has seven kittens and she moves them from one place to another, she will always make eight trips.

Test Dummy Play

B. Jay Becker

TEST YOUR PLAY

1. You are declarer with the West hand at Three No-trump. North leads the six of spades, which you win in dummy with the queen. How would you now play the hand?

	♠ Q4 ♥ AKJ83 ♦ K752 ♣ A6
♠ A85 ♥ 652 ♦ AJ63 ♣ 974	N W E S

2. You are declarer with the West hand at Four spades. North cashes the K-Q of diamonds and plays a low diamond to the ace, which you ruff. You draw two rounds of trumps, both opponents following suit. How would you now play the hand?

	♠ A1083 ♥ A7 ♦ 1062 ♣ AJ54
♠ KQJ94 ♥ KJ ♦ 85 ♣ Q932	N W E S

1. The first thing to do is find out whether the hearts are divided 3-2. If they are, you are sure of making the contract. You therefore cash the A-K of hearts immediately. Assuming that both defenders play low, you continue with a heart and thus assure nine tricks.

If it turns out that South was dealt Q-10-x-x of hearts, which you learn after the second heart lead, you shift your attention to diamonds by playing the king first and then finessing the jack. If South was dealt either Q-x or Q-x-x of diamonds, you would then have nine sure tricks.

If, at trick three, you discovered that North held Q-10-x-x of hearts originally, you would play a diamond to the ace followed by a heart towards the jack. This line of play would also insure nine tricks.

The one thing to avoid is an early heart or diamond finesse. The A-K of hearts must be cashed first to obtain the maximum chance of making the contract. Only after this is done is it possible to know the best way to proceed.

2. The only problem is to avoid the loss of two club tricks. This cannot occur if the clubs are divided 3-2, so all efforts are devoted to catering to a 4-1 or 5-0 break.

Proper play makes the contract impregnable against any club distribution. Cash the A-K of hearts and then play a low club, finessing the jack if North follows low or shows out.

If South wins with the king, he must return a club or yield a ruff and discard. In either case, you win the rest of the tricks.

If the jack of clubs finesse wins, you now insure the contract by returning a low club from dummy. If South shows out, you play any club from your hand and North is endplayed. If South follows to the low club, you are sure of making the contract.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem. The girdle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It's the coolest kind of girdle for summer wear, feels like nothing on but has such slimming strength it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim" is the peak achievement of the designer-genius, Olga.

HOW DO WE READ THAT STUFF?

Okay, so some doctors write prescriptions in a rapid manner. Add Latin phrases and intermix ounces and grams, and today's prescriptions can be pretty complicated. Gilmour - Danielson's pharmacists spend their time working with prescriptions, confirming doctors' wishes on the phone if need be, to assure you that you get just what the doctor ordered. That handwriting on a prescription blank can mean life itself—Gilmour - Danielson's people treat it just that way.

A Tempting New Easter Recipe

Easter — as Christmas, Thanksgiving, and other significant holidays — has its own special traditions, many of which are related to special feasts. These may vary from country to country — or even from region to region within a country — because of prevailing local tastes.

In the United States, the Thanksgiving turkey is perhaps the most firmly established holiday dish, but a close second is the Easter ham, and many of us prefer the succulent, versatile ham not only for the special feast of Easter but for many other festive occasions.

A tempting new recipe, calling for canned ham, which is so easy to slice, is this Spice Crusted Ham, which comes from the oven with a browned crust which imparts a refreshing flavor to this delectable dish.

Ingredients for this simply prepared recipe are:

Canned ham — approximately 5 pounds
1⅓ cup light brown sugar
¾ cup soft bread crumbs
2 teaspoons mustard
½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground black pepper
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
¼ cup pineapple juice

Bake ham at 325 degrees for one hour. Remove from oven and score. Combine sugar, bread crumbs, and spices. Add juice and mix to form a thick paste. Spread the paste over the surface of the ham. Bake at 350 degrees for one-half hour, or until nicely browned.

Variety Of Interesting Recipes

SWEET AND SOUR SHRIMP

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 pound cooked, cleaned shrimp (3½-4 cups)
1 No. 2 can pineapple chunks (2½ cups)
2 tablespoons minced crystallized ginger
1 cup green pepper strips, about 2 inches long
½ cup vinegar
½ cup sugar
1 tablespoon soy sauce
2½ tablespoons cornstarch

1. Preheat fry pan.
2. Melt butter in fry pan; saute shrimp 5 minutes, stirring occasionally.
3. Add pineapple and juice, ginger, green pepper, vinegar, sugar, salt, soy sauce; blend well; cover.
4. Reduce temperature to low. Cook 10-15 minutes.
5. Spoon out a little liquid; mix with cornstarch; pour into shrimp mixture; cook until thickened — about 5 minutes.
6. Serve over rice.
7. Six servings.

ONION-STUFFED POTATOES

Onion-Stuffed Potatoes are a refreshing departure from conventional baked potato dishes, with the use of French fried onions making them truly "something special."

6 medium baking potatoes
Margarine or butter
½ cup sour cream
1 tablespoon margarine or butter
¼ cup milk
¾ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Ground Black Pepper
1 can (3½ oz.) French fried onions
Dehydrated parsley flakes

Wash potatoes and dry. Rub skins with margarine or butter and place on baking sheet. Bake at 400 degrees about one hour, or until done. Cut slice off top of each potato. Scoop out potato and mash. Add sour cream, 1 tablespoon margarine or butter, milk, salt and pepper. Beat until fluffy. Stir in onions, which have been crumbled. Pile the potato mixture into the shells. Sprinkle the tops with parsley flakes and bake at 375° for 10 minutes.

MEAT LOAF PIE

1 pound ground beef
1 egg
¼ cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons instant minced onion
2 tablespoons savory brown mustard
2 slices white bread, cubed
2 tablespoons diced green pepper
2 teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce
¼ cup catchup
2 tablespoons brown sugar

Combine in a mixing bowl ground beef, egg, evaporated milk, onion, 1 tablespoon of savory brown mustard, bread cubes, green pepper, and Worcestershire sauce. Mix well. Spoon into a greased 8-inch pie plate. Make a topping by mixing together the catchup, brown sugar and remaining tablespoon of brown mustard. Spread over top of meat in pie pan. Bake in a 350 degree oven 25 to 30 minutes or until meat is cooked through. 4 servings.

DATE NUT SANDWICH FILLING

½ cup finely chopped dates
½ cup chopped nuts
¼ cup real mayonnaise

Combine all ingredients. Makes about 1 cup.

A Cake To Remember

Baking a cake can do wonders for lifting your spirits on a dreary, rainy day . . . an old-fashioned kind of cake you put together yourself.

Try this heavenly Poppy Seed Cake with a custard filling and creamy chocolate frosting. The shortening is economical lard, noted for producing light cakes and flaky pastry, states home economist Reba Staggs. Because of the filling, this cake should be refrigerated or stored in a cold place.

POPPY SEED CAKE

½ cup poppy seeds
1 cup milk
2½ cups sifted enriched flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
⅔ cup shortening
1¼ cups sugar
4 egg whites
1 teaspoon vanilla

Add poppy seeds to milk and soak in refrigerator overnight. Line two 9-inch layer cake pans with waxed paper. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter or margarine or favorite shortening, gradually add ¾ cup sugar and continue creaming until light and fluffy. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with poppy seed mixture. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add remaining ½ cup sugar gradually to egg whites, beating until stiff. Fold beaten egg white-sugar mixture into batter. Add vanilla. Pour into cake pans and bake in a moderate oven 350° F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Cool, spread Custard Filling between layers and Chocolate Frosting on top and sides.

CUSTARD FILLING

6 tablespoons flour
1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
4 egg yolks, beaten
2 cups milk
⅔ cup chopped pecans, if desired
½ teaspoon vanilla

Mix together flour, sugar and salt. Stir in eggs and milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add vanilla, cool. Stir in nuts.

CHOCOLATE FROSTING

¼ cup butter or margarine
3½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar
3 tablespoons milk
1 square chocolate, melted

Hot Cross Bun Time

An interesting highlight in the hot cross bun story is the variety of ways the cross can be applied. There are those who form the cross of confectioners' sugar icing after the buns are baked. Some simply slash a cross in the top before baking, then use a thin sugar glaze. Still others insist that the only proper way to make hot cross buns is to bake a cross of cooked custard into the top of each bun.

HOT CROSS BUNS

1 cup dark or golden raisins
1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed
¼ cup warm water
1 cup boiling milk
3 tablespoons butter or shortening
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 egg
3½ to 4 cups sifted flour
Melted butter
Egg Wash
Sugar Icing

Chop raisins coarsely, if desired. Sprinkle or crumble yeast into warm water in warm bowl and stir until dissolved. Combine milk, butter, sugar, salt and cinnamon. When lukewarm, stir in well beaten egg and half the flour; beat to smooth, thick batter. Add yeast, raisins and remaining flour to make moderately stiff dough. Scrape dough from sides of bowl. Cover and let rise until light and double in size, about 1½ hours. Turn dough out on floured board and divide into 12 equal-size pieces for large buns or 24 pieces for small buns. Shape dough into rounds and place about 1½ inches apart on greased baking sheet. Brush with melted butter or oil and let rise until double in size, about 35 to 40 minutes. With scissors or a very sharp knife, CAREFULLY cut a cross on top of each bun. Brush buns with Egg Wash. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Remove from oven and cool. Decorate each cross with Sugar Icing while buns are still warm. Makes one dozen large or 2 dozen small buns.

EGG WASH: Beat 1 egg yolk with 2 tablespoons water.

Late Evening Food Fun

Of all the foods that grace tables throughout the world, none is a more international favorite than the pancake. From the puffy omelet-like Austrian "nockerl" to the substantial sourdough flapjack of American frontier days pancakes are truly 'round the world treats.

Scandinavian Pancake Torte is an elaborate dessert version of the versatile pancake that's perfect for late evening entertaining. Thin, tender pancakes rich with sour cream and cottage cheese goodness form the layers of the torte. Between the layers goes a smooth and luscious cream cheese and blueberry filling.

Here are suggestions to assist you in preparing the delicate pancakes. Pour only enough batter, about ½ cup, into the skillet to thinly cover the bottom. When the underside of the pancake is golden brown, loosen with a thin spatula, then turn with a pancake turner.

Warm Scandinavian Pancake Torte in a slow oven for about 15 minutes to serve warm. Or, to serve chilled, assemble the torte and refrigerate, omitting the warming period in the over. Be sure to cover and refrigerate any extras but only for two or three days.

SCANDINAVIAN PANCAKE TORTE

1½ cups dairy sour cream
1 cup small curd creamed cottage cheese
6 eggs
3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups sifted enriched flour
Blueberry Filling
Confectioners' sugar

Blend sour cream, cottage cheese, eggs, sugar and salt. Stir in flour, beating until mixture is well blended. Pour about ½ cup batter into lightly greased hot 10-inch skillet, quickly turning pan to allow batter to completely cover bottom. Bake until golden brown, turning once. Place between towels and keep warm in very slow oven (250 degrees F.) while baking remaining pancakes and preparing filling. Spread about ¼ cup Blueberry Filling over each pancake, stacking in layers on heat resistant serving plate, and leaving top pancake plain. Sprinkle confectioners' sugar over top of pancake "torte" and decorate with blueberries. Bake in very slow oven (250 degrees F.) 15 to 30 minutes to warm through. Serve warm.

Makes 8 or 9 ten-inch pancakes.

BLUEBERRY FILLING

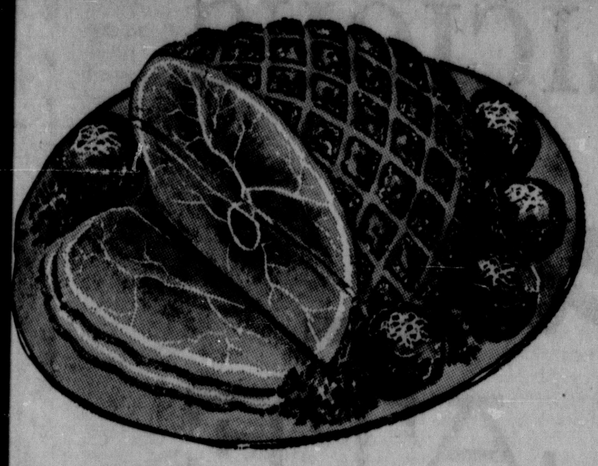

1 cup softened cream cheese (8-ounce package)
2 to 3 tablespoons milk
2 cups blueberries, drained (12-ounce frozen package, thawed)
2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar

Whip cream cheese until light. Beat in enough milk to make mixture of spreading consistency. Reserve a few blueberries for decoration. Blend sugar and remaining blueberries into cream cheese mixture. Spread on warm pancakes. Makes 16 servings.

POSTCARD by Stan Kallaplane

Having spent a newspaper career interviewing talking dogs, it was no surprise when the lady next to me turned and said:

"I know a poodle that can say, 'Mommy, I I love you'."

The occasion for this was the San Francisco meeting of the Confrerie des Chevaliers du Tastevin — the Brotherhood of Knights of Wine-Tasting.

This is a society devoted to lovers of Burgundy wines. A taste for such vino requires a fair income to satisfy it —it's not like buying a gallon of muscatel.

Obviously, people at such a dinner have stylish dogs. And a dog with any style OUGHT to be able to talk.

☆ ☆ ☆

Well, when I was a bearer of good and bad tidings for the dailies — (on a muscatel income) — I was often sent out to interview talking dogs.

I got very expert at it. Asked them cunning questions.

I worked for an editor who had a fantasy that most dogs talked.

Either dogs talked or it was my job. I did my best to supply him.

"It's something to do with massaging their throats," the lady said. "If you massage a toy poodle's throat, they can talk."

"About anything?" I asked. "Like could they learn to make a speech at a winetasting dinner. Like:

" 'Burgundy was the winiest wine,

" 'The central, essential, and typical wine,

" 'The soul and greatest common measure

" 'Of all the kindly wines on earth.'

"I quote," I said, "from Charles Edward Montague. Could a massage help a poodle to do that?"

☆ ☆ ☆

The lady said there was probably no end to what a throat massage could do for a smart poodle. A poodle who was on the grape.

"My own poodle, Tony, can say, 'Mommy'," she said. "But I was so jealous when I heard that poodle say, 'Mommy, I love you!'."

The "I love you" poodle, she said, belongs to Liz Vanderbilt Whitney — "I think she's married to a Marine Colonel named Tippin or something now."

However, the lady said her poodle had a few extras.

☆ ☆ ☆

"If I tell Tony — her name's Antoinette but we call her Tony — if I tell her, 'Get up on the housekeeper's bed,' she says, 'I don't want to.' She says it like, 'Ah wah who'."

People who have toy poodles will do a lot for them. And even more so if they talk.

She said: "We moved to Beverly Hills just because of Tony. We have in-and-out doors and everything.

"We were living at the Talmadge apartments. But Tony was the only female poodle. And there were 9 male poodles who used the stairway. It was impossible. So we moved to Beverly Hills."

FRONTIER ROUTE ELIMINATION IS SUPPORTED BY AIR TRANSPORT ASSN.

The Air Transport Association of America Thursday filed a brief in the controversial Frontier Airlines Segment 13 case, claiming the State Railway Commission's order denying the air carrier's application to eliminate its northern route "may be an unconstitutional taking of Frontier's property."

The Nebraska Supreme Court will hear oral arguments on the case Monday.

Segment 13 covers flights over Frontier's northern route from Omaha to Casper, Wyo., and includes service in Nebraska to Lincoln, Columbus, Norfolk, Ainsworth, Valentine and Chadron.

Entering the proceedings as a friend of the court, the transport association said: "the nation and public at large would suffer if the Nebraska State Railway Commission ruling of April 6, 1962, were upheld by this court."

CB&Q Asking ICC For Boxcar Order

The president of the Burlington Railroad had asked the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) to order Eastern railroads to return Burlington boxcars for use in transporting grain in Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado to market.

Because of a shortage of boxcars, many grain shippers have been unable to move their products.

Burlington President Harry Murphy made the request in a telegram to Charles W. Taylor Jr. of the ICC. A copy of the telegram was sent to the Nebraska State Railway Commission.

History's Worst

Murphy informed the ICC that the "Burlington's shortage of boxcars for grain loading is worst in history. This morning (Wednesday) we had cumulative orders for 12,620 cars for such loading with only 833 available, and cumulative daily system shortage has exceeded 10,000 cars for several weeks.

'Bitter Complaints'

"Many shippers in Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas complaining bitterly with sound justification, but we are helpless because we have on line less than 65% of our equivalent plain box ownership.

"Stated otherwise, if all Burlington-owned boxcars were available for our use, we would have at least 7,000 more such cars.

Eastern Contrast

"Contrast this with conditions on some Eastern roads. Three Eastern roads alone as of Feb. 15 had on their lines over 28,000 more boxcars than they own."

The Burlington official declared the "maldistribution" of boxcars at the expense of that railroad and its shippers is "confiscatory, intolerable and cannot be justfied."

REFINING NEEDED TO FIND 'RIGHT' FRESHMEN

Nebraska high school principals and guidance counselors were told Thursday afternoon that finding the "right" students for the freshman honors courses still needs further refinement at the University of Nebraska.

Professors from English, mathematics, agriculture and history were "optimistic about the results of the newly established honors courses for the top entering freshmen."

Speaking at the annual Principal-Freshman Conference, Dr. Robert Hough of English said he fears that the "intellectual pop-off" is missing from the honors courses.

Dr. Edwin Halfar of mathematics said his department is making an extreme effort to find individuals with "that spark of creativity."

Dr. Robert Koehl of history said his department's honors course "has produced a great deal of controversy and interest among the honors students."

Earlier, Lee W. Chatfield, director of the Junior Division, listed criteria used in selecting honors-course freshmen:

—high intellectual capacity.
—skilled in "test-taking," at least of "information recognition" common to standardized tests.
—competence in "memorizing" and "feed back" of the typical classroom operation.
—evidence of independent thinking.

Chatfield said that the honors courses place emphasis on "more thinking" rather than simply more extensive assignments as such. "They will then naturally read more," he said.

In the morning, more than 125 high school officials met with their 1962 graduates to learn of any problems they may be having as freshmen.

Principal M. D. McKenney of Nebraska City said: "It is amazing how the attitude of the students has changed in the past 12 months."

Principal Charles Smith of Burwell said his former students felt they were well prepared in English grammar but needed more writing experience.

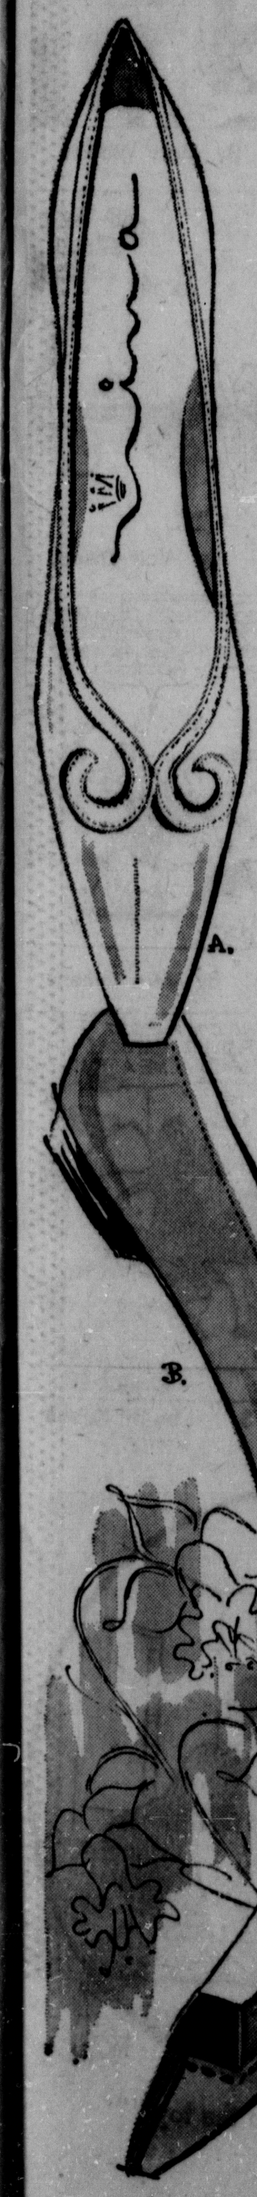

Kearney Principal M. L. Christensen said: "Most of our students had only minor problems in adjusting to college life. They were well-satisfied with tne new pre-registration program.

"In most instances, they felt that they were placed in the proper course. All of them said they were studying much harder now than at the beginning of the school year."

POINT BLANK

* * *

By Don Bryant
Sports Editor, The Star

Banner Year

Still the honors come to the University of Nebraska . . . . . First, a great football season . . . . . the Gotham Bowl victory . . . . high honors for Coach Bob Devaney . . . . Player of Year Laurels for Dennis Claridge . . . . . the Big 8 indoor track championship ..... second place in Big 8 swimming, while Vern Bauers piled up 4 gold medals . . . . national Federation mile title for Mike Fleming . . . . . NCAA wrestling title for Mike Nissen . . . . . that's fine record for the boys.

PAT SCHMADEKE

And the girls got a champion, too — Miss Pat Schmadeke, Lincoln sophomore, who has been named Miss Campus Queen by Sport Magazine in its 12th annual national poll.

Judging from the record to date, when the Cornhuskers started improving they really got serious — the guys and dolls, too, that is.

Big 8 Monopoly

When it comes to intercollegiate wrestling, the Big 8 easily ranks as the best mat loop in the nation.

When Oklahoma came through to edge Iowa State for the NCAA championship recently, it marked the 6th straight year the Big 8 has finished 1-2 in the national chase.

And 3 times during that same period, Big 8 teams have wound up 1-2-3. That's pretty fair wrestling, to be sure.

KU's Line

Jack Mitchell, the always-fretting football coach of the Kansas Jayhawks, is bemoaning the loss of several top linemen as he marshalls the Kaw River crew in spring practice.

But while it's true the Jayhawks have lost some better-than-average linemen, they'll have a few stouthearts on hand next fall.

Any time the KU line is mentioned, a Nebraska fan is certain to remember the 40-16 Husker victory last fall in which the Jayhawk forward wall was utterly demolished.

I doubt if it would be wise to pooh-pooh the 1963 KU line because of what happened in 1962. Nebraska had a great day, all right, but there's little doubt that the Kansas line was much better than it appeared that day.

Try a 13-7 loss to Oklahoma and a 3-3 tie with Missouri for a refresher course, when you start giggling at the Kansas line.

NU On Spot?

In one respect, the Nebraska line will be carrying the monkey next fall — the Huskers will have to be high and mighty to equal the devastation they wrought in 1962 at Lawrence, while the Jayhawks will be trying to erase bitter memories and can hardly help but play better.

So the Nebraska-Kansas line play next fall at Memorial Stadium will provide some interesting angles to the historic rivalry.

Among the departed Jayhawks are ends Pack St. Clair and Andy Graham, tackles Fred Eisenman and Marvin Clothier, guards Duke Collins, Ken Tiger and Wallace Barnes and center Kent Converse.

Returnees will include ends Mike Shinn and Jay Roberts, tackles Brian Schweda and Tommy Thompson, guards Mickey Walker and Golden Glover Ron Marsh and centers Pete Quatrochi and Larry Fairchild.

Nebraska will have some key absentees, too, as well as a number of key returnees.

Chief losses are ends Jim Huge, Larry Donovan and Bill Comstock, guards Dwain Carlson and Gary Toogood and tackles Tyrone Robertson and Al Fischer.

Make no mistake, there will be plenty of line construction going on in both the Kansas and the Nebraska spring camps.

NWU Is Set For Sherman

Nebraska Wesleyan University will play all of its home baseball games this season at Lincoln's Sherman Field.

Coach Irv Peterson made this announcement in releasing a 19-game schedule.

Thirteen of these games will be home contests.

Sherman Field, located in the southwest part of town, was the site of the Capital City's former professional Chiefs. Last year American Junior Legion teams used the facilities.

The site and date of a doubleheader against Buena Vista of Iowa has not as yet been established.

Wesleyan opens the season Apr. 3 at Concordia.

The Plainsmen make their home debut Apr. 6 when they host Midland in a doubleheader.

Six doubleheaders are on tap for Wesleyan.

All home single games will start at 3 p.m., with the doubleheaders beginning at 1 p.m.

NWU's freshman team has a May 18 outing against the University of Nebraska "B" team.

The schedule:

Apr. 3—at Concordia; 6, Midland (2); 23, at Creighton; 26, Dana; 30, Hastings (2).

May 2—Creighton; 8, at Dana; 10, Concordia; 13, Northwest Missouri State (2); 17, Offutt Air Force Base (2); 21, Omaha (2).

Celtics Edged By Royals, 135-132

Boston (AP) — The Cincinnati Royals, trailing by 20 points at one stage, made a comeback behind brilliant Oscar Roberston for a 135-132 upset victory over the Boston Celtics Thursday night in the opener of the National Basketball Association Eastern Division playoff finals.

Cincinnati leads the best-of-7 series 1-0, returning to its home court for the next contest Friday night.

Roberston, the Big "O" who threatened to become a big zero in the early minutes, wound up with 43 points and was highly effective off the backboards.

Sports Vacation, Boat Show Opens Tonight

The Lincoln Sports Vacation and Boat Show opens tonight and continues through Sunday at the State Fairgrounds Exposition Building.

HIGH SCHOOL CAGERS HONORED

Lincoln's Sertoma Club honored 14 Lincoln high school basketball players Thursday. Two players from each school were honored for sportsmanship and excellence in play and another for scholarship. Honorees were: University High—George Zarins and Steve Butts; Southeast — Steve Bock, Mike Jennings and Gary Pettett; Northeast—Jerry Motz, Stan Grell and Art Scott; Lincoln High—Dave Hollibaugh, Bob Vasatka and Bob McKay; Pius X—Dayle Churchill, Tom McGovern and Bob Byington. Pictured above with Sertoma Club president Al Sward are, from left, Motz, Scott and Grell. (Star Photo).

Tulsa Rally Downs Cornhuskers, 5-4

. . . BORNSCHLEGL HOMERS

Tulsa, Okla., (AP)—The University of Tulsa rallied with two out in the bottom of the 9th to beat the University of Nebraska, 5-4, in a baseball game here Thursday.

Tulsa rallied from an early 3-0 Cornhusker edge by scoring a run in the 6th inning and two in the 7th. Nebraska sent across another run in the top half of the 9th to go into the lead, 4-3.

With two outs in the bottom of the 9th, Tulsa put runners at first and 3rd. Tulsa's Jordy Henderson singled sharply to left and leftfielder Wally Duff booted the ball, allowing both runners to score.

Nebraska's Ron Havekost held the Hurricanes in check for the first 6 innings, allowing only one run and 5 hits. Tulsa's 9 hits in the last 3 innings came off reliever Ernie Bonistall, who was credited with the loss.

Bill Requiring Hunting Permission Advanced

The legislature Thursday advanced to final reading a bill requiring hunters to obtain written permission to hunt on private posted land.

It then reacted by killing another measure which would have increased penalties for trespassing on such property.

The bill requiring written permission, LB420, moved forward after a motion by Sen. Albert Kjar to kill the measure was defeated on a 11-24 vote.

Angels 4, Indians 3

Palm Springs, Calif. (AP)—The red hot Los Angeles Angels won their 3rd straight game in the 9th inning Thursday as they rushed over 3 runs to come from behind and overtake Cleveland 4-3.

Leon Wagner hit his second home run of the day with one out in the ninth to pull the Angels within one run of the Indians. Charley Dees wrapped it up with a two-run pinch single against loser Barry Latman.

Half the 14 spring victories compiled by the Angels have been achieved in their last at bats.

Southeast Rates Top Track Role

By CONDE SARGENT
Prep Sports Writer

Lincoln schoolboy track again will not make a big splash on the statewide scene this spring.

The local activity should be improved and may grow even better in the near future, however.

A Southeast-Pius X dual Saturday at SE and Waverly at Uni High Friday open the season. The City Championship Meet between the 3 public schools is next Friday at Nebraska Wesleyan.

Last year's endeavors by Capital City tracksters managed just 3 points from all 5 schools in the state meet.

Hope for improvement will come primarily from field events and in relays.

Southeast, which won the city championship a year ago, probably will field the strongest team.

Coach Roy Churchill has 13 lettermen, including 4 city champions.

Lincoln High has 8 lettermen; Northeast 5; Pius X 12; and Class B University High 8.

All schools had larger turnouts for track than usual with sophomores showing much promise.

Southeast's top veterans are Tippy Dye, who swept the hurdles at last year's city meet; weightmen Carel Stith and Bill Zersen; pole vaulter Bill Rohrig; and high jumper Dave Gates.

All but Stith were city champs last year. Stith began the season at last week's Nebraska Track and Field Federation meet at NU with a 50-2½ shot put.

Coach Churchill may switch Dye to the quarter-mile with senior Dennis Hudson and soph Gary Peterson assuming most of the hurdle chores.

Peterson may also run the sprints along with veterans Scott Fredericks and Bob Churchill.

Lincoln High offers strong opposition in the weights in sophomores John Spaedt and Bob Cole, both above 45 feet in workouts. Spaedt cleared 49 feet in the Federation meet.

Other prominent Links are Dennis Gordon, two-time city 440 champ; hurdler Dick Fuller, miler Ralph Merriman; and soph half miler Kent Radke.

Northeast will be the strongest in the pole vault where lettermen Jim Inness, Dennis Van Landingham, and Jim King perform.

Other Rocket veterans on coach Max Hester's team are Jake Lee, 1962 city mile champ who'll tour the 880; and miler Tom James.

Pius coach Vince Aldrich has 60 candidates with miler Bob Byington and hurdler Dale Champoux leading the way.

Butts' Finances Under Scrutiny

. . . IN GRID PROBE

Atlanta (AP)—Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook issued subpoenas Thursday for all financial records of Wally Butts, former University of Georgia athletic director accused by the Saturday Evening Post of football-rigging.

Cook ordered bank records brought to his office Friday and said he had invited Butts to appear for questioning.

The attorney general is investigating the Post allegations that Butts gave Georgia football secrets to Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant of Alabama in a telephone call prior to the Sept. 22 game which Alabama won 35-0.

Butts and Bryant have denied the Post charges.

Cook said a state lie detector test will be administered Friday to George Burnett, Atlanta insurance salesman who was quoted in the Post as having overheard Butts give Georgia plays and other information to Bryant about a week before the game.

Burnett already has taken a polygraph test which he said indicated he told the truth. Butts and Bryant also have taken tests which they said vindicated them of the charges.

It was uncertain whether Butts would meet with Cook. Attorneys for the former coach declined comment.

However, attorney William H. Schroder said the subpoena of records was only routine and he planned to issue subpoenas for such records of Burnett and the Post.

In Montgomery, Bryant promised Thursday to give a legislative committee his continued support in its investigation of charges that the Georgia-Alabama game was rigged.

Bryant, along with President Frank Rose of the University of Alabama and Fred Nicol, who administered a lie detector test to the Alabama coach, met behind closed doors with the joint investigative committee and Atty. Gen. Richmond Flowers.

The committee said after talking with Bryant, Rose and Nicol that in view of the preliminary status of the group's work and pending court action, "the committee has no comment upon their testimony."

Earlier, the attorney general said he wanted Sports Editor Furman Bisher of the Atlanta Journal to undergo a lie detector test to determine if Bisher had any connection with the Post article.

Flowers called on Cook to see if Bisher would submit to a test. If so, he said he would like the results to be turned over to the investigative committee.

Bisher could not be reached for comment.

Bisher is the author of an earlier Post article, "College Football Is Going Berserk," in connection with which Bryant has filed a $500,000 libel suit. Butts has filed a $10 million libel suit against the Post and Bryant has asked for a retraction of the story on the Georgia-Alabama game. This can be a preliminary to a libel suit.

USC Has Slim Lead In NCAA Swim Meet

Raleigh, N.C. (AP) — Three meet and NCAA records were set and Southern California's depth paid off in a two-point lead over Yale after the first session of the 40th NCAA swimming and diving championships Thursday.

Third in the team race was Minnesota, impressive winner of the 440-yard medley in record time, while Ohio State's defending champion Buckeyes stood in a tie for 4th with Michigan.

Southern California jumped ahead in the night's first event, the 500-yard freestyle, as Australian Jon Konrads, a 20-year-old Trojan sophomore, stroked away from the field in 4 minutes, 50.7 seconds.

New Distance

Since the distance is new, replacing the former 440-yard event, the time is a record. A similar record was set by Ed Townsend of Yale in a new event, the 400-yard individual medley, which he swam in 4:22.5.

Minnesota pulled back into the team race with a record 3.35.2 performance from its 400 medley team. Walt Richardson and Steve Jackman, who earlier defended his 50-yard freestyle title successfully, brought the Gophers from behind both Yale and California. The time was 2.4 seconds better than Ohio State's 3:37.6 of last year, which was the standard.

Jackman was four-tenths of a second off his record of 21.1 in the 50 freestyle but sprinted to victory impressively over his favorite rivals, the Yale twosome of Steve Clark and Mike Austin.

Ohio State picked up all its points in the one-meter dive as Lou Vitucci won the event for the second year in a row. OSU's Juan Botella was 3rd and Bill Glueck got the final Buckeye point by finishing 6th.

Yale's depth showed in its 2-3 finish in the 50 freestyle and second in the 400 medley relay as the Eli and Southern Cal made the pre-meet form sheet stand up well. They were picked to finish 1-2.

Both Konrads and Townsend bettered their qualifying times considerably. Those had stood as the standards in the 500 free-style and 400 individual medley until the finals in N.C. State's swim stadium.

YMCA Sports Fete Saturday

Nebraska's YMCA Sports Festival is expected to attract some 1385 participants to Lincoln Saturday.

The Lincoln Central "Y" will host the all-day event with competition scheduled at 4 sites—Nebraska University's Coliseum, Physical Education Building and Student Union and the University High gymnasium.

Basketball, swimming, bowling, wrestling, judo, table tennis and BB-gun firing are the events on tap for the entrants.

Two 4-Minute Milers To Vie In Texas Meet

Austin, Tex. (AP) — Two 4-minute milers will run against each other in the Texas Relays April 5-6.

Relays director Froggy Lovvorn said Thursday that Bill Dotson, former Kansas star, has agreed to run against Dyrol Burleson of Oregon in the 1500 meter event.

Salt-Wahoo Area OK'd For Boating

Recreational power boating will be provided on a part of the Salt-Wahoo impoundments to be managed by the State Game Commission, Commission Director Mel Steen said Thursday.

He made the comment in response to an inquiry from Jim Ager, superintendent of Lincoln City Parks.

Steen said dams 4 and 8 near Sprague and Hickman have been constructed and "we plan to provide for recreational power boating on the dam 4 reservoir."

He said a boat launching ramp is expected to be installed as soon as possible and the impoundment will be opened to boating as soon after that as appropriate access roads, parking areas, etc., can be developed.

Lemay, Ranew In Swap For Cubs' Murphy, Gerard

Mesa, Ariz. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs traded outfielder Danny Murphy, 20-year-old, $125,000 bonus boy, and pitcher Dave Gerard to the Houston Colts Thursday for left-handed pitcher Dick Lemay and catcher Merritt Ranew.

Lemay, 24, was 0-1 for the San Francisco Giants and 10-4 for the Giant farm in Tacoma, Wash., last year.

Ranew, 24, a left-handed hitter, batted .234 at Houston and .233 at Oklahoma City last season.

The Cubs are to receive a 3rd player, as yet unnamed.

The Cubs have given up on Murphy after 3 years of watchful waiting. He apparently will start all over in the Colts system since they have earmarked him and Gerard for Oklahoma City.

Kneece Shoots 66 For Azalea Lead

. . . 7 BIRDIES HELP

Wilmington, N.C. (AP) — Harold (Catfish) Kneece, one of the most ardent fishermen in the ranks of professional golfers, went birdie hunting instead Thursday and bagged 7 to shoot 34-32-66 for the first round lead in the $20,000 Azalea Open tournament.

The sturdy little Aiken, S.C., professional, whose 63 earlier this month at Pensacola, Fla., is the year's lowest 18 hole score on the tour, held a one stroke lead over two former U.S. Open champions, Jack Fleck and Gene Littler.

Fleck, who zoomed from obscurity to fame by beating Ben Hogan in a playoff for the 1955 National Open crown, shot 33-34. Littler, 1961 U.S. Open king and No. 2 money winner on the 1962 tour with $66,000, reversed those figures.

Kneece won a special $500 prize for his low round, a 6-under-par. The sponsors have posted $2,500 in incentive money to be distributed in daily awards.

First round leaders in the $20,000 Azalea Open golf tournament:

Michigan NCAA Gym Title Favorite

Pittsburgh (AP)—Based on a record-smashing performance in soaring to the Big 10 title, Michigan has been tabbed as the favorite in the NCAA gymnastics championship starting Friday.

Coached by Newt Loken, Michigan scored 210½ points in the meet. Iowa was a distant second with 83½ points. Warren Neiger, coach of the host Pitt team, called the Wolverines' feat unusual.

Neiger said Southern Illinois, Syracuse, Penn State, California and defending champion Southern California should give Michigan the most competition.

The Plainsmen oppose a strong South Dakota University team Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m. at O. N. Magee Stadium in Lincoln.

Nebraska Wesleyan coach Woody Greeno, in his 8th season, terms prospects good.

His club will be facing an 11-meet schedule, plus action in the NCAA Regionals and the NAIA Championships.

Three home meets, highlighted by the W Club Invitational on April 23, dot the NWU schedule. The other home meet will be April 4 when Midland and Dana invade for a triangular.

Returning lettermen include broad jumper and sprinter Bill Jones, distancemen Mel Carlson and Larry Ribble, pole vaulters Mike Knaub and Drew Callan, discus throwers Jaack Aulik, Dan McCord and Mike Slatinsky (also javelin), half-milers Terry Roberts and Ed Williams (also 440), hurdler Don Johnson, high jumpers Jim Booher and Gary Foltz, shot putter Sam Cowan, and 440-men, Bill Martin, Tom Whiddon and Warren Washburn.

Jones has already broken his school broad jump record by going 23-feet, ½-inch last Saturday in the Nebraska Track and Field Federation meet at Nebraska's indoor track.

Booher cleared 6-2 in the high jump earlier this month in the Kansas State Invitational. Ribble ran a 10:02 two-mile in the K-State meet to better his school mark.

Booher went 6-5 last year as a freshman. His appearance at K-State came after only working out one week following his participation in basketball.

Thirty-three are currently on the Wesleyan track and field squad.

The Wesleyan schedule:

March 30 — South Dakota University, 1 p.m.
April 4 — triangular in Lincoln, Midland, Dana and Wesleyan, 4 p.m.; April 6 — at South Dakota University; April 11 — at Kearney Relays; April 17 — at Midland Relays; April 20 — at Crete, Doane, Concordia and Wesleyan, 1:30 p.m.
April 23 — W Club Invitational, prelims 2 p.m., finals 6 p.m.; April 26 — at Drake Relays; April 27 — at Drake Relays.
May 3 — at Sioux City Relays; May 4—at Dakota Relays, Sioux Falls, S.D.; May 11 — at Doane Relays, Crete; May 24 — at NCAA Regionals, Cedar Falls, Iowa; May 31 — at NAIA Championships, Sioux Falls, S.D.
June 1 — at NAIA Championships, Sioux Falls, S.D.

The roster:

Police Sued For Losing Cigarettes

. . . SMOKES WERE BAIT TO CATCH CONFIDENCE MAN

London, (AP) — Three policemen who baited a trap for a thief were sued Thursday for losing the bait — 262,000 cigarettes.

The owner, a tobacco wholesaler, demanded 2,383 pounds ($6,672), the value of the smokes. He alleged that the 3 sleuths provided his goods "negligent custody, control and protection."

Defendants were Detective Superintendent Victor Cook, Detective Inspector Leonard Smith and Detective Constable Robert Quinnell.

The plot began to develop early in January 1961.

Order Cigarets

At that time one Raymond L. Turner went to a tobacco wholesaler's office in Romford and ordered 13,100 packets of cigarettes. He said he needed them for a string of cigarette machines he owned. The office manager said he would be happy to oblige but would require cash on delivery, since Turner was unknown to the firm. Turner said that was all right with him.

"Deliver them on the 27th to No. 4 Blewitts Cottages in Rainham," he instructed. "The cash will be waiting."

Something in Turner's manner aroused the manager's suspicions. He consulted police. Superintendent Cook scented a confidence game and decided to set a trap.

Dummy Cartons

One of the wholesaler's trucks was loaded with 48 cartons containing 13,100 packages of cigarettes and 48 dummy cartons filled with sawdust and bricks. Constable Quinnell was rigged out in a company uniform to pose as the truck driver's helper. Quinnell was instructed to determine whether Turner actually had the money to pay for the cigarettes. If so, Quinnell was to put on his cap as he came out and make delivery in the normal way.

But if Turner asked the driver to unload the cigarettes and then go somewhere else to pick up the cash, Quinnell was to stay bareheaded and deliver the dummies. Cook and Smith, lurking in a squad car nearby, would collar Turner if he attempted to flee with the dummy cartons.

Came the day. The truck driver and Quinnell went to the cottage, followed by Cook and Smith. Quinnell went inside. Turner flashed a large bundle of large bank notes and said "bring 'em in here."

Unload Cartons

Quinnell went out to the truck and donned his cap. The driver unloaded the 48 cartons of genuine cigarettes and Quinnell carried them into a back room of the cottage. Turner started to hand over the money, but said:

"Well, I suppose I ought to count the cartons first."

Turner then stepped into the back room. Time passed. Quite a lot of time. Finally Quinnell decided to go look for Turner. Turner had vanished. The 48 cartons of cigarettes had vanished. They went through the back door. The cops were watching the front.

Truck Gone

An innocent-looking truck which had been parked in a rear alley had vanished.

They caught Turner 6 months later. But they never did find the 262,000 cigarettes.

7 New Cases In Typhoid Epidemic

United Press International

Zermatt, Switzerland (UPI) —Seven new suspected cases were reported Thursday in the typhoid epidemic that is turning this popular resort into a ghost town.

The epidemic has killed 3 persons and put more than 400 into hospitals in Europe and the United States.

The 7 new suspected cases were taken to the emergency hospital in the new Zermatt schoolhouse. In Hamburg, Germany, authorities reported that a 30-year-old man who returned recently from the Swiss alpine resort had been hospitalized with typhoid fever.

8 in U.S.

In Atlanta, Ga., the Federal Communicable Disease Center said that 8 typhoid cases have been reported in the United States among persons who apparently contacted the disease at Zermatt. It said "additional cases may be anticipated" in the United States.

A new case in the United States was disclosed Thursday by Westchester County, N.Y., Health Commissioner Dr. William A. Brumfield. Brumfield disclosed that a New Zealand woman was stricken March 2, two days after arriving in New York from Zermatt to take up residence with a family in Bedford, N.Y. He said she was treated at a hospital in Mt. Kisco and released upon recovery. Her identity was not disclosed.

The death Thursday of a 33-year old man, who had worked in Zermatt as a hotel concierge, was described as "possibly" connected with the epidemic. Hospital authorities at Brigue said Amandus Zenzuenen was admitted with "some" symptoms of typhoid fever. However, they said an autopsy attributed his death to a "heart condition."

Cancel Meet

The epidemic here led to cancelation of next weekend's international alpine skiing contest in Innsbruck, Austria. About 130 top skiers from 12 countries were to participate. Many had stayed recently in Zermatt, however, and Innsbruck authorities called off the meet to prevent the possible spread of the disease.

'The More Word Spreads, More'll Be Lincoln Gains'

"The more you spread the word about Lincoln, the more people will know and think about Lincoln, and more people and industries will probably locate here."

Walter Duvel, new director of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce industrial development department, told the Women's Division industrial committee Thursday that Lincolnites must sell their product — the community — just like a realtor sells houses.

He said Lincoln has "one of the finest labor markets in the country; people are willing to work 8 hours a day for 8 hours' pay which is not the common situation around the country."

Duvel pointed to the University of Nebraska as one of the major attractions for location of industry in the area, and praised the downtown Lincoln area as "one of the most beautiful I've ever seen."

More Reds Defecting

Saigon (AP) — U.S. military authorities say Communist guerrilla defections to the Vietnamese government last week were the highest in the civil war. No figures were given but President Ngo Dinh Diem said earlier that the defections had been averaging 65 a week.

Church Women Hear Speech By World Traveler

Mrs. Hiram C. Houghton, of Red Oak, Iowa, past president of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, addressed 135 women from 53 Lincoln churches on the 10th anniversary of Japan International University Thursday.

"Prejudice," Mrs. Houghton told Lincoln United Church Women, "is something you down because you are not a part of it."

Mrs. Houghton traveled around the world with 8 other women in 1962 to visit several countries and fight against prejudice of race, creed, religion and class.

She told of several experiences in Japan and commended the work of woman's clubs throughout the world.

The program, at Trinity Methodist Church, was sponsored by the Foundation Planning Board for the JICU.

Burney Warns About Upsetting Meat Industries

Lt. Gov. Dwight Burney Thursday warned that "anything that can in any way upset the demand for meat is damaging to the entire industry."

Meat, he noted, is "a very perishable product.

"Feeders are concerned that the consuming public be disturbed by any agitation.

"Naturally the feeders would expect wholesalers and retailers to follow the down market just as they do an advancing market."

Vote Eligibles High

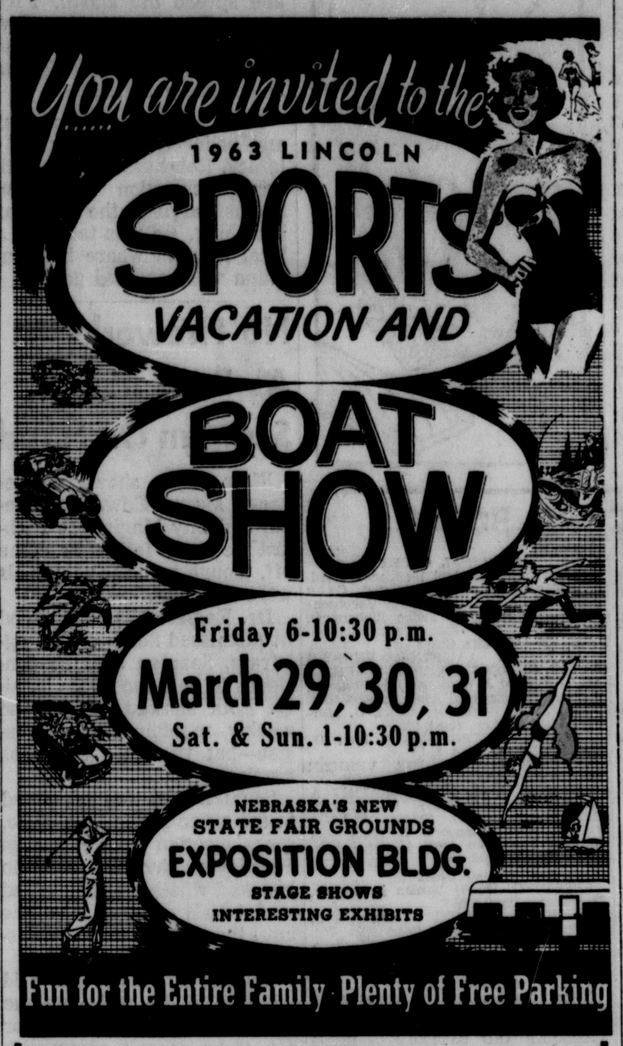

Ottawa (AP)—A preliminary tabulation shows at least 9,844,196 Canadians will be eligible to vote in the April 8 federal election — about 145,000 more than in the last national election in 1962.

Soraya Will Get 20% Of Film Profit

Rome (AP)— Princess Soraya will be paid $200,000 and 20% of the profits for her first movie role, a spokesman for Dino de Laurentiis Studios said Thursday. The spokesman confirmed a report to this effect published in an Italian weekly magazine. Soraya, former Empress of Iran, signed earlier this month to do a picture for De Laurentiis. Work is to start in about two months. The studio spokesman said he did not know the title of the film but that it would be "a modern dramatic story."

Saturn Ends Phase On Successful Note

Cape Canaveral, Fla. (AP)—The great Saturn rocket ended phase one of its test program Thursday, blazing to its fourth straight success and demonstrating that it can function even with one of its 8 engines dead.

The second half of a scheduled space doubleheader, the launching of the Explorer 17 research satellite, was postponed because of trouble with an atmospheric measuring device in the payload. The shot, which was scheduled Thursday night, was put off until next Tuesday.

Saturn's inboard engine No. 5 was cut off deliberately after 100 seconds of powered flight to simulate a failure. The fuel intended for the shut down engine automatically dispersed equally to the 7 working engines. They burned two seconds longer than normal and the mammoth rocket completed its brief ballistic flight without a hitch.

Normal

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported that all aspects of the flight were normal.

The 7-minute flight was the last of the first-stage-only tests for Saturn, world's largest known rocket. In later development, Saturn will boost American astronauts toward the moon in Project Apollo.

The next step in the Saturn flight development program will be to fly a live second stage atop the booster. That is scheduled for next fall on flight No. 5.

Unmanned

The 6th flight, set for late in the year, is to hoist an early unmanned model of the Apollo moonship into earth orbit. These rockets also would be the first to build up full booster thrust of 1.5 million pounds, 200,000 pounds greater than that on Thursday's vehicle.

The colossal launching sent a cascade of flame crashing over the launch area and a thunderclap rolling across Cape Canaveral as the 8-engine power plant ignited at 2:12 p.m. CST. With almost agonizing slowness, the 165-foot tall projectile labored slowly upward under its 470 tons of weight, of which 312 tons was fuel. Two dummy upper stages were filled with 95 tons of water for ballast.

Final engine shutoff was at an altitude of about 34 miles and 21 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral. The spent Saturn then coasted upward to an altitude of about 77 miles before plummeting back to break up and sink in the Atlantic Ocean about 300 miles southeast of the launch area. Peak speed was about 3,600 miles an hour.

Tot, 2, Saved By Grandpa

Norfolk — A two-year-old boy who rode his "horsey" (a stick) down to Medelman's Lake narrowly escaped drowning.

Alex Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Taylor who live near the lake south of Norfolk, fell into the lake.

His 5-year-old sister saw her baby brother go down, and spread the alarm. The boy's grandfather, Alex Taylor, waded into the water and rescued the boy, whose parka helped keep him afloat.

The child was unconscious and believed dead by his father. Relatives kept up artificial respiration and when firemen arrived the boy was breathing. He was taken to a local hospital where his condition was reported good.

No Fireworks As Both Mayor, Seaman On Hand

Blair (AP)—A showdown between Mayor Edward Eagleton and City Magistrate Richard Seaman failed to come off, though both the principals were on hand.

Dr. Eagleton has contended he dismissed Seaman as magistrate. Seaman says he continues to hold the office legally. Both showed up for the weekly municipal court session—but the docket was blank.

Seaman who was appointed to the office in the first place, seeks election to the post in Tuesday's election. Seaman has said whether he is elected or not he'll continue in office until the newly elected magistrate takes over April 17.

Mayor Eagleton has told the council he will continue to oppose Seaman, elected or not, if he doesn't agree with his rulings.

So the controversy apparently will continue.

Livestock Judging School Scheduled

Geneva—Approximately 250 4-H members and parents are expected to attend the 3rd annual livestock judging school here Saturday.

The all day school will be held at the J bar D Ranch, just north of Geneva on Highway 81. Dairy judging will start at 10 a.m., with livestock judging beginning at 12:30 p.m.

Jury Decides Richardson's Death Suicide

Broken Bow (AP)—A coroner's jury has ruled that Bob Richardson, 86-year-old service station manager at Anselmo, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Mr. Richardson was found dead in the station last Friday night, a .32 caliber pistol in his hand. However, investigators found 3 additional bullet holes in a door casing.

Capt. V. W. Byler, State Safety Patrol criminal investigator, testified at an inquest that the bullet which killed Richardson came from the gun in his hand and that it was fired at a range of less than 2 inches.

Empty casings of the other 3 slugs were found, he said, and had been fired recently from the same gun.

Custer County Attorney Earl Johnson said Richardson may have test fired the old pistol. Johnson said the coroner's jury was unanimous in its verdict.

Doane Recipient Of $1,000 Grant

Crete — For the 5th time since 1957, Doane College has received a $1,000 grant from The International Nickel Company, Inc., according to Donald M. Typer, Doane's president.

Although the grant is unrestricted, the money will be used for the physics facilities in the new Goodall Arts and Sciences Building.

Pleads Guilty To Forgery Charge

Beatrice (AP) — Richard J. Helter, 22, also known as Richard Farias, pleaded guilty in Gage County Court to a forgery charge Thursday. He was bound over to District Court and bond was set at $3,000.

Sheriff's officers picked Helter up for allegedly forging a $54 check.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation said it was the 5th time Helter had been charged with a felony.

Crosby Criticizes Fair-Housing Bill

Omaha (AP)—Former Gov. Robert Crosby has called a fair-housing-practices bill before the Nebraska Legislature unnecessary.

He noted in Omaha that the U.S. Supreme Court has outlawed restrictive covenants in deeds.

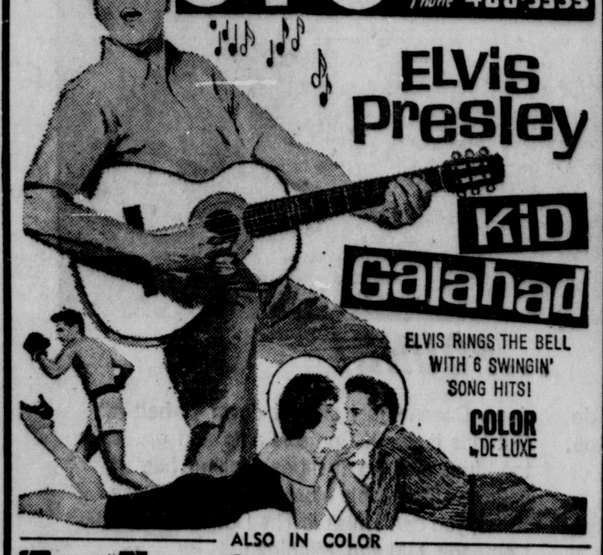

The legislative bill, he said, carries no criminal penalties and would cloud the title of any property involved.

The Lincoln attorney declared that the bill would increase possible damages in condemnation cases and would "open the door wide for owners to claim anything under the sun."

Laborites Will Nix Polaris

. . . IF THEY WIN BRITISH ELECTIONS

London (AP)— Harold Wilson flies to Washington Friday to tell President Kennedy that a Labor government in Britain will cancel the purchase of Polaris missiles from the United States.

Wilson, newly elected leader of the opposition Labor Party, makes his journey with the authority of a man who expects soon to become prime minister.

Polls show the Labor Party a favorite now to win the next election—which must be held by October 1964—and thus able to name Wilson prime minister.

Back Away

Among the sweeping changes in national policy his regime would make is backing away from Britain's attempt to remain an independent nuclear power. He also would work for arrangements to strengthen the pound-dollar relationship so that Britain's sterling money system would be able to count on U.S. protection during a period for economic expansion envisaged by Labor.

Wilson knows Labor's nuclear policy will involve abandonment — or "de-negotiation"—of Kennedy's undertaking to Prime Minister Macmillan at Nassau last December to sell Polaris rockets to the British.

It also will impel a broad reappraisal of America's nuclear relations with the Atlantic Allies. This is because the Nassau pact was the starting-point for the project to set up a NATO nuclear force.

Wilson's view of Britain's nuclear future suggests a similarity of outlook with President Kennedy. The U.S. administration has declared its dislike of independent national nuclear forces within the alliance. It considers them needless, wasteful and dangerous, adding no real power to the West's deterrent.

Wilson was not making any formal statements on the eve of his departure for Washington, but his ideas have been made known by persons familiar with his views.

Girls From City Give Gifts To Flood-Hit Kentucky Folks

Hazard, Ky. (AP)—Forty-two girls from the city came to this eastern Kentucky coal mining town Thursday bearing gifts and clothing and departed visibly impressed by the kindness and cleverness of the people.

In the mountains, clever often has a different meaning. The term is used when a visitor is welcomed to the mountaineer's home and treated liberally to his hospitality.

"Everything is so different down here. It is like being in another world," said Ann Minogue, who acted as spokesman for the seniors from Villa Madonna Academy in Covington.

"I've never been anywhere where the people are so happy and helpful to each other.

"They do not seem to be interested in worldly things but in making each other happy. The people have a philosophy of making do with what they have."

The high-school seniors gave up their annual trip to Washington and New York in favor of a one-day visit to flood-battered Hazard to bring the clothes, toys, books and other items they had collected. March floods twice played havoc with the town.

$322 Million Credit Given To Argentina

Washington (AP)—A $322-million credit package to help Argentina meet a critical balance-of-payments problem was announced here Thursday.

Coupled with $398 million in loans to Brazil announced Monday, it brought to more than $700 million the financial assistance extended this week in a determined effort to salvage economic and political stability for South America's two largest nations.

A State Department spokesman announced Thursday the International Monetary Fund will make available to Argentina $50 million through October 1963. The U.S. Treasury is extending for an additional 4 months an exchange agreement for $25 million.

Subject to completion of Argentine accords for $135 million with European creditors, the U.S. Export-Import Bank will, on parallel terms, refinance up to $92 million in Argentine debts to the bank and other U.S. creditors. The U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) will provide $20 million in fresh money.

The agreements were extended to cover the final months of the term of President Jose Maria Guido which ends next Oct. 12. He has promised to turn over power then to the winners of an election scheduled for June 27.

Teamster Rebels Get 2nd Chance

Philadelphia (AP) — A rebel group in the Teamsters Union got a second chance Thursday to take key over-the-road drivers away from James R. Hoffa's International Teamsters and into the AFL-CIO.

The National Labor Relations Board ruled violence and threats by Hoffa's union improperly influenced a bargaining election last November. It directed that some 8,200 members of 4 Teamster locals vote again on whether they want to stick with Hoffa, join the rebel "Voice" group, or belong to no union at all.

Involved in the current intra-union test of strength are members of Local 107 — 4th largest in the Teamsters hierarchy—470, 212 and 331. Their members are employed by some 300 trucking firms in eastern Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey and Delaware with the heaviest concentration in the Philadelphia metropolitan area.

The truckers are united in motor transport labor relations.

A group known as the Voice of the Teamsters Democratic Organizing Committee lost the November election by 596 votes—3,870 to 3,274. This result the NLRB has set aside.

The NLRB directed that new election be held on a date to be selected by Bennet F. Schauffler, head of the Philadelphia region. Schauffler last Jan. 24 recommended voiding the November balloting because of "numerous instances of violence, in some cases brutal, committed against adherents and leaders of the Voice."

Specifically, he cited 17 instances of violence against Voice members, and 20 acts of vandalism on autos owned by Voice supporters.

Sign Cultural Pacts

Moscow (AP)—The Soviet Union has announced signing cultural exchange agreements with 3 African countries—Dahmoney, Niger and the Federal Republic of Cameroon.

High Tides Hit Isle

Managua, Nicaragua (AP)—The inhabitants of the Island of Love were reported to be running away from high tides and unfriendly winds. Rising waters invaded 40 dwellings and swamped a circus tent, drowning some animals, reports here said. Love is northwest of the port city of Corinto (Corinth). On the map it shows as Isla del Amor.

Miss Keeler Returns But Keeps Silent

London (AP) — British model Christine Keeler, whose friendship with a cabinet minister was raised in Parliament, returned Thursday night from Spain and said:

"I am saying nothing."

The 21-year-old model became a center of attention when she failed to show up as a prosecution witness at the trial two weeks ago of a Jamaican boy friend accused of shooting at her.

The boy friend, Johnny Edgecome, was convicted and sentenced to 7 years in prison.

Rumors that people in high places might have been linked with her disappearance at the time of the trial prompted War Minister John Profumo to tell the House of Commons:

"Any suggestion that I was in any way connected with, or responsible for, her absence from the trial . . . is wholly and completely untrue."

Profumo said he and his wife had known Christine but that he had not seen her since December 1961.

Dacthal Proved 95-100% Effective in University-Controlled Tests

Like a mysterious, underground killing force, DACTHAL — found in the best brands of crabgrass killers — attacks crabgrass seeds as they germinate . . . never lets crabgrass seedlings develop. Result — no crabgrass.

DACTHAL herbicide was test-proved by university and state agricultural experiment stations from coast to coast . . . proved to be the crabgrass-seed killer 95%-100% sure to kill. Does not damage the "good" grasses.

DACTHAL is effective against other noxious, annual weeds, too — common chickweed, purslane, carpetweed, yellow foxtail, lamb's quarters, and witch grass. "CONTAINS DACTHAL" appears on the bags of the best brands of crabgrass killers . . . look for the words to make sure you are getting an effective formula.

Stock Market Mixed, Lower

New York (AP) —After more than two sessions of advance the stock market turned irregularly lower Thursday as weakness in tobaccos triggered selling. Volume slackened below the 4-million-share level of the previous two sessions.

The day's volume totaled 3.92 million shares compared with 4.3 million the previous day.

The Dow Jones industrial average dropped 2.26 to 682.47.

Of 1,290 issues traded, losers outnumbered gainers by 540 to 448. New highs for the year totaled 69 and new lows 13.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped .8 to 258.7 with industrials off 1.4, rails off .4, and utilities off .2.

Eight of the 15 most active stocks declined, 6 advanced and one was unchanged, U.S. Steel.

General Motors, touching another historic high, was the most active stock rising ⅛ to 65⅛ on 64,500 shares.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Volume rose to 1.33 million shares from Wednesday's 1.02 million.

U.S. Professor Weds Red Despite Protests

Moscow (AP)—The government, young Communists and her own mother opposed the wedding. But blonde Ruth Makarova Thursday wed Edgar Lehrman, a visiting U.S. professor at Moscow university, where she studied.

Both were nervous as they exchanged rings in the wedding palace, a Czarist mansion converted by Soviet authorities into a marriage center.

Student sources said the Young Communist League at the university tried furiously to estrange the two. The government demanded and got a certificate of sanity from Miss Makarova—as if questioning the sanity of any Soviet citizen who wanted to marry an American.

Friends said opposition also came from the bride's mother, widow of a writer for the government newspaper Izvestia. But they said the mother finally relented and, while too ill to attend the wedding, waited for the couple at Lehrman's quarters at the university.

Lehrman, 36, is visiting professor of literature. He is a member of the faculty at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., and plans to return to the United States in September.

Nicaragua Seeks Damages From U.S. For Invasion

Managua, Nicaragua (AP) — The United States has been asked to pay $2 million in damages for a century-old invasion of Nicaragua.

Jose Borgan, a National Assembly deputy, said Thursday he had asked President Kennedy at the presidential meeting in San Jose to pay for William Walker's depredations in Granada. Walker, a latter-day filibuster, proclaimed himself president of Nicaragua in 1854.

Borgen said Kennedy told him the question would be settled when he got back to Washington.

ORDINANCE NO. 7985

AN ORDINANCE accepting and approving the plat of LINCOLN INDUSTRIAL ADDITION, as an addition within three miles of the corporate limits of the City of Lincoln, filed in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, on March 8, 1963, upon certain conditions herein specified.

WHEREAS, Northside Company, a corporation, sole owner of a part of Lot 91, Irregular Tracts in the Northwest Quarter of Section 7, Township 10 North, Range 7 East of the 6th P.M., Lancaster County, Nebraska, having filed said plat on March 8, 1963, with the City Clerk of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, with a request for approval and acceptance thereof, in the manner and form as by ordinance required, and

WHEREAS, it is for the convenience of the inhabitants of said City of Lincoln, Nebraska, and for the public that said plat be approved as filed.

NOW, THEREFORE, Be it Ordained by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:

Section 1. That the plat of LINCOLN INDUSTRIAL ADDITION, filed in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, by Northside Company, a corporation, as owner, on March 8, 1963, be and it is hereby approved pursuant to the provisions of Article 9, Chapter 15, R. R. S. 1943. Such acceptance is conditioned upon the following conditions:

FIRST: That the owner above set forth may, prior to the passage of this ordinance, establish an agency and continue such agency in existence without modification unless approved by the City, which will be responsible for the construction, administration, maintenance, repair and improvement of the sewage and water systems, including sewage treatment facilites, of Lincoln Industrial Addition in a manner approved by the City of Lincoln and the Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department, and which meets the minimum criteria of the current State Health Department rules and regulations.

SECOND: That the owner above set forth, or the agency set forth herein in condition numbered "First" shall, prior to the passage of this ordinance, enter into a written agreement with the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, wherein it is agreed that the said owner, or said agency, shall construct, administer, maintain, repair and improve sewage and water systems to serve all of the lots in Lincoln Industrial Addition, and shall construct, maintain, repair and improve the necessary sewage treatment facilities to satisfactorily treat the discharge from the sanitary sewer system before it is discharged into Salt Creek. Plans and specifications for said water supply system, sanitary sewerage system, and sewage treatment facilities and the construction and installation thereof shall meet the approval of the City of Lincoln and the Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department, and shall meet the minimum criteria of the current State Health Department rules and regulations.

THIRD: That the owner above set forth shall, at its own cost and expense, install a system of street lighting upon all streets within Lincoln Industrial Addition. Such street lighting system shall be installed in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the City of Lincoln.

FOURTH: That the owner above set forth shall, prior to the passage of this ordinance, deliver to the City of Lincoln a warranty deed conveying to the City the North 80 feet of Lot 21, Lincoln Industrial Addition, which deed shall be held by the City until such time as all of the remaining portion of said Lot 21 is conveyed to one owner, at which time said North 80 feet of said Lot 21 shall revert to the purchaser of said Lot 21.

Section 2. Immediately upon the taking effect of this ordinance the owner above named shall file a certified copy of this ordinance in the office of the Register of Deeds of Lancaster County, Nebraska.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication according to law.

"NAME YOUR OWN PRICE" Used Car Sellout!

(FREE SET OF 4 NEW TREAD TIRES IF WE DON'T ACCEPT YOUR OFFER*)

* Here's how to MAKE A BID AND SAVE A BUNDLE

- Visit our display of select used cars.
- Note Retail Price and Book Price marked on windshield.
- Give authorized salesman a bona fide bid, your own price, somewhere between the two prices marked on the windshield, accompanied by a cash desposit or title of your trade-in.
- First come, first served. All cars subject to prior sale. First bona fide bid takes the car based on the prices affixed to the windshield.
- Get complete details at O'Shea-Rogers.

Record '63 car sales mean we've taken in the most used cars in history. We're loaded with great values, even new and executive-driven '62 Fords! WE'VE GOT TO SELL. We want to clean house right to the bare walls. THIS ISN'T JUST ANOTHER SALE—it's a complete sellout at tremendous reductions! All you do is name the price on the car you want—just one bid (see Rules)—and you get either the car, or a set of 4 new tread tires FREE!

Hurry, Sellout Ends March 30!
